

This project, which has received $490 million in federal funding, will be a vital transportation link for the communities of East Los Angeles and sometime in the future continue through San Gabriel Valley cities. The project has already begun to spur economic development in this historic Mexican-American section of Southern California.

I congratulate my neighboring colleague, Congresswoman LUCILLE ROYBAL-ALLARD for her great work on behalf of this Eastside Extension. She has led the East Los Angeles County delegation in the fight for federal funding for this project over the years. She has continued a tradition of dedicated service to this community begun many years ago by her father, Edward R. Roybal, and we are honoring him here today by naming the Edward R. Roybal Metro Gold Line Eastside Extension in his memory.

This is only the beginning of bringing this important rail extension project to a working class area. Planning and design for phase 2 of this project continues, as it extends the metro line to the cities of Eastern Los Angeles County. Los Angeles Metropolitan Transit Authority and my colleagues must continue to pursue a full funding grant agreement for this project with the Federal Transit Administration in an effort to provide Metro access to the millions of people living in Eastern Los Angeles County. Major cities have great rail transit and the East Los Angeles community should be no exception!

Madam Speaker, my constituency welcomes the metro service finally connecting East Los Angeles to the greater Los Angeles community. This will go a long way to encourage the citizens of East Los Angeles to continue their push for cityhood and will allow the residents of this area to be involved in critical projects, such as the Eastside Extension, that will impact their neighborhood and way of life.

Madam Speaker and colleagues please join me in congratulating the Los Angeles Metropolitan Transit Authority, the Eastern Los Angeles Congressional Delegation, Supervisor Molina, the Review Advisory Committee and the residents of East Los Angeles for their involvement in making this historic moment a reality.

Mr. PERLMUTTER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor and applaud Dr. Wanda Bedinghaus for her outstanding service to our community.

The dedication demonstrated by Dr. Wanda Bedinghaus directly benefits her community in countless ways. #### RESOLUTION OF THE HAMILTON COUNTY COUNCIL ENCOURAGING THE PRESERVATION OF INDIANA JOBS

HON. DAN BURTON

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, November 16, 2009

Mr. BURTON of Indiana. Madam Speaker, in October the national unemployment rate reached 10.2 percent, the highest level of unemployment our country has seen since April 1983. Clearly, the stimulus package rushed into law earlier this year has failed to create the jobs that President Obama, Vice President BIDEN, and the Democrat Congressional Leadership promised it would. And, I fear that the full extent of the unfulfilled promises of job creation and economic stimulus are just beginning to surface.

Under the circumstances, as policymakers one of the first questions we should ask when evaluating any bill that comes before this House is "Will enacting the policies embodied by this bill potentially jeopardize American jobs?" If the answer is yes, in my opinion, we have a responsibility to the American people to reject that bill. Unfortunately, it appears that my colleagues on the other side of the aisle take a different view. Rather than seeking to preserve and grow private sector jobs they seem determined to kill those jobs in favor of the Federal government assuming control over a larger and larger percentage of our economy.

I would like to briefly discuss one example of the Majority's drive to replace private sector jobs with government jobs that, if enacted into law, will potentially put thousands of Hoosiers out of work. Recently, the House of Representative voted on the "Student Aid and Fiscal Responsibility Act of 2009", H.R. 3221, which sets the stage for the elimination of the Federal Family Education Loan, FFEL, program leaving parents, schools, and students with no choice for obtaining student loans except for the Federal government's Direct Lending Program. Supporters of the proposal contend that consolidating student loans under the Federal umbrella will actually save the Federal government money. They cite as evidence a Congressional Budget Office, CBO, estimate that nationalizing the whole Federal student loan program would save nearly $90 billion in direct spending over ten years. However, what they fail to mention is that the CBO also found that President Obama's plan to reform the Pell Grant program would increase direct spending by $293 billion over that same 10-year period. In other words, any potential savings to the taxpayer, real or not, from federalizing the student loan industry will actually be spent many times over. More importantly, whether the plan to federalize the student loan industry is good fiscal policy or not fails to take into account the real world question of jobs.

Moving to a one hundred percent Direct Lending system would kill jobs in the private student loan industry. Make no mistake about it, it is not a question of if jobs will be lost; it is a question of how many jobs will be lost. The FFEL program supports more than 30,000 private sector jobs nationwide. In Indiana alone about 2,300 jobs are in the FFEL industry, and in Indiana's 5th Congressional District, killing off the FFEL program could result in the loss of more than 1,500 jobs.

As you can imagine, the possibility has many of my constituents worried, and for good reason. In Fishers, Indiana, Sallie Mae—the Nation's largest private student loan lender—operates a Loan Service and Data Center and employs 647 Hamilton County residents. The Hamilton County Council—which represents the people of Fishers—is following this issue closely and has taken note of what the end of the FFEL program could mean for hundreds of its residents. I would like to ask unanimous consent to place into the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD a copy of the Hamilton County Council resolution encouraging the preservation of Indiana jobs, which was passed on November 4.

RESOLUTION NO. 11-04-09-02

Whereas, the Congress of the United States is debating the President's plan to make college more affordable; and,

Whereas, among many issues involved in said debate is the issue of eliminating private student lenders; and,

Whereas, Sallie Mae and its 8,500 employees across the country including 2,300 in Indiana are "at risk" in said debate; and,
