AMY DAVID—PRUDENTIAL SPIRIT
OF COMMUNITY AWARD

HON. CYNTHIA M. LUMMIS

OF WYOMING
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, March 15, 2010

Mrs. LUMMIS. Madam Speaker, I would like to congratulate and honor a young student from the State of Wyoming who has achieved national recognition for exemplary volunteer service in her community.

Amy David of Boulder, Wyoming has just been named one of the top honorees in Wyoming by the 2010 Prudential Spirit of Community Awards program, an annual honor conferred on the most impressive student volunteers in each state. Amy was nominated by the Sublette County 4-H. She is a senior at Pinedale High School and has represented the state as Miss Wyoming Teen USA. Amy has been an ambassador throughout Wyoming promoting physical fitness, healthy minds, self-confidence and goal setting for youth. She has participated in many health-related fund raisers and co-founded an annual race to raise money for cystic fibrosis research.

In light of numerous statistics that indicate Americans today are less involved in their communities than they once were, it is vital that we encourage and support the kind of selfless contribution this young citizen has made. People of all ages need to think more about how we, as individual citizens, can work together at the local level to insure the health and vitality of our towns and neighborhoods. Young volunteers like Ms. David are inspiring to all of us, and are among our brightest hopes for a better tomorrow.

Ms. David should be extremely proud to have been singled out from the thousands of dedicated volunteers who participated in this year's program. I heartily applaud Ms. David for her initiative in seeking to make her community and state a better place to live, and for the positive impact she has had on the lives of others. She has demonstrated a level of commitment and accomplishment that is truly extraordinary in today's world, and deserves our sincere admiration and respect. Her actions show that young Americans can—and do—play important roles in our communities, and that America's community spirit continues to hold tremendous promise for the future.

RECOGNIZING ANN SATHER RESTAURANT

HON. MIKE QUIGLEY

OF ILLINOIS
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, March 15, 2010

Mr. QUIGLEY. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the 65th anniversary of a Chicago institution—Ann Sather Restaurant. Although renowned for Scandinavian food, the string of restaurants has also built a reputation for hospitality and service to the community.

More than half a century ago, Ann Sather pooled her life savings and bought a diner. Her devotion to creating a restaurant with homemade meals, warm hospitality, and low prices made it a legend on the North Side of Chicago.

After more than 30 years, Ann Sather passed on her famous restaurant in 1981 to 24-year-old Cornell graduate Tom Tunney. Tunney has since opened several more Ann Sather restaurants, steering the business to new heights. Now alderman of Chicago's 44th Ward, Tunney has carried on Ann Sather's legacy of giving back to the community by supporting local organizations and causes.

Ann Sather passed away in 1996, but her spirit lives on through her restaurant. At the flagship Belmont location, her portrait still hangs in the dining room, smiling down on all who stop by for an order of her one-of-a-kind Swedish pancakes or world-famous cinnamon rolls.

Six-and-a-half decades later, this Chicago legend remains a staple of the Lakeview neighborhood thanks to its tradition, charm and commitment to the community. I wish to thank Ann Sather and Tom Tunney for all they've done, all they continue to do, and wish Ann Sather's the best of luck for another 65 years.

DON'T CRY FOR ME—IN HONOR OF A REAL AMERICAN HERO PFC
BRENDAN MARROCCO, STATEN ISLAND STEEL, THE UNITED STATES ARMY, AND HIS MAG-NIFICENT FAMILY

HON. MICHAEL E. McMAHON

OF NEW YORK
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, March 15, 2010

Mr. McMAHON. Madam Speaker, PFC Brendan Marrocco of Staten Island, New York. Rocco, as his Brothers in Arms call him, is an inspiration to all of us and to all the men and women recovering over at Walter Reed Hospital. Rocco is the only surviving quadruple amputee of the Iraq war. His will to live, and his courage makes him a heroes' hero, and a shining lesson to us all. His family, like his brother Michael who quit his job, is always there for him. His fine father and mother raised one heck of a son. For Rocco's heart matches this Gotham City from which he comes. Could there be a bigger one? I ask that this poem, penned by Albert Caswell in honor of him, his family, and SGT Jeff Mittman, and all of our heroes of these wars, FAOY, who have come home to teach us all, be placed in the RECORD. Bless them all.

DON'T, CRY FOR ME!

Don't, cry for me!

Lift up your head, there's so much more I'm going to be!

Don't, feel sorry for me!

Yea, I've hurt . . . but, I'm growing ever stronger! Don't you see?

Yea, its been hard . . . and it will always be! But, this is the life that I so chose to lead! But, on this road that we call life . . . there are no promises, or guarantees . . .

All except, for what's deep down inside of me! Arms and legs, we all need!

But, we can survive! But, without hearts . . . We so surely, can not so breathe! For all in life, of which is great . . .

Love, valor, hope, courage, and honor . . . and so sacrifice . . .

So emanates, from deep down inside of me! Sure, I'd love to touch and feel . . .

Or run once again . . . upon my once two strong legs so very real . . .

Still, all of this pain and heartache can not so steal . . .

My heart, that which so beats inside of me! That which so heals all of me! Don't cry for me!

Because, there's Staten Island steel inside of me!

Yea . . . I'm up and running . . . can't you see?

Well, you better get started . . . if you want to catch up with me!

As I make the best of what my Lord God has so left to me . . .

For all is possible, when hearts believe! People live such useless lives!

Honor in death and freedom . . . are but for what I rise!

As but what, I've so lived for . . . and die! And all of my most precious gifts, my arms and legs . . .

And so all of this . . . I give to thee, and not ask why?

Yea, I'd love to see . . .

Or hear, all those words you're saying to me . . .

But, my heart still hears and sees! For all I've lost, and is no longer part of me!

For I can hear, far much more clearer now! And see . . . indeed!

Standing here, now with but half a face . . . With such scars and burns . . .

And such great burdens upon my soul as placed!

As so bravely, I carry on . . . both night and day . . .

But, in my Lord's eyes . . . my beauty so emanates!

To make a difference with it all! As but what I so fought for, what I saw!

As I so answered that most noble cause! As my new battle is to be won!

To so shine upon this world, all in courage's sun . . .

Giving hope to all, each and everyone! For in this minute, That we call life . . .

Have you but so made a difference, I cry? All in this our Lord's eyes?

And for all of those, who failed or not tried . . .

It's but for you, I cry!
Don't Cry For Me!
