

H.R. 4840, TO DESIGNATE THE FACILITY OF THE UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE LOCATED AT 1979 CLEVELAND AVENUE IN COLUMBUS, OHIO, AS THE "CLARENCE D. LUMPKIN POST OFFICE"

HON. PATRICK J. TIBERI

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 24, 2010

Mr. TIBERI. Madam Speaker, I rise today to express my support for H.R. 4840, the bill to designate the facility of the United States Postal Service located at 1979 Cleveland Avenue in Columbus, Ohio, as the "Clarence D. Lumpkin Post Office."

Mr. Lumpkin has long been a pillar in Columbus and the Linden community. Born in 1925, he grew up in the South in a family of sharecroppers. After high school, Mr. Lumpkin joined the United States Army where he served his country honorably in World War II. After the War, Clarence Lumpkin moved to the South Linden community in Columbus where he was elected to the South Linden Area Commission, and has been a driving force and a leader in the community ever since. His work and outstanding presence have touched many lives and are very much appreciated by his fellow central Ohioans. This post office was saved from closing with the help of Mr. Lumpkin's tireless work, so it is appropriate that this post office bears his name.

I hope you will join me in honoring the life and accomplishments of Clarence D. Lumpkin and recognizing his dedication to the Central Ohio community.

IN HONOR AND REMEMBRANCE OF
FRANK D. CELEBREZZE

HON. DENNIS J. KUCINICH

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 24, 2010

Mr. KUCINICH. Madam Speaker, I rise today in honor and remembrance of Frank D. Celebrezze, a dedicated husband, father, grandfather, an Army Veteran and a former Ohio Supreme Court Chief Justice.

A third-generation Italian-American, Judge Celebrezze learned early the importance of family, faith and service to community. From 1956 to 1958, he served in the Ohio Senate. In 1964, he was elected to serve as a Cuyahoga County Common Pleas Court judge, a position he held until 1972, when he was elected to the Ohio Supreme Court. Judge Celebrezze became Chief Justice in 1978 and held that position until 1986.

Judge Celebrezze was highly admired by those serving in the judicial system. He served with honor, integrity and recognition of those who served before him. He was a mentor and friend to numerous attorneys, clerks and colleagues.

Above all else, Judge Celebrezze was a devoted husband, father and grandfather. He and his wife, Mary Ann, were married for 62 years. Together, they raised their children Rebecca "Judith Ann", Frank D., Laura, David, Jeffrey, Keith, Matthew and the late Brian and Steven. He was a devoted grandfather to Miranda, Christina, Nicole, Keith Jr., Daniel, Ashley, Jessica, Jaime and Adam.

Madam Speaker and colleagues, please join me in remembrance of the Honorable Judge Frank D. Celebrezze. His legacy as a jurist and as a man will not be forgotten.

RECONCILIATION ACT OF 2010

SPEECH OF

HON. MICHAEL R. TURNER

OF OHIO

Sunday, March 21, 2010

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I strongly oppose a government takeover of our nation's healthcare system. It is irresponsible for Congress to approve a vastly unpopular and costly measure at a time of unprecedented budget deficits and uncertainty about the future of the economy. Despite overwhelming opposition by the American people, the Majority in Congress, led by Speaker PELOSI, has resorted to manipulating longstanding procedural rules to rush through an overhaul of our nation's healthcare system. My constituents understand that any bill that requires backroom special deals to pass is fundamentally flawed.

Obtaining quality medical care is a top priority for Ohioans and their families. Instead of forcing an unpopular, one-size-fits-all approach to healthcare reform, Congress and the White House should listen to the American people and return to the drawing board to negotiate a real bipartisan agreement in order to achieve true reform.

Real health care reform does not have to undermine the strengths of our current system, nor limit doctor choice or care availability. A series of commonsense measures will go a long way toward improving health care for all Americans. For example, insurance companies should be prohibited from excluding a person for coverage based on pre-existing conditions.

Medical research is also essential to bringing health care costs down. Private ingenuity is the strength of our current system and should be preserved and encouraged. The federal bureaucracy cannot stand in the way of such important research.

When employees change jobs, they should be able to take their health insurance with them. Continuity of coverage can be critical for a person in the midst of important health-related treatment.

Our litigation system forces doctors and hospitals to raise operating costs. For decades, the cost of medical liability has risen much more rapidly than actual medical care. Limiting frivolous lawsuits would have a significant effect on containing health care costs and promoting accessibility to care.

Individuals should be allowed to deduct the full cost of their health insurance premiums from their federal income taxes. Furthermore, we should expand the ability to put tax-free dollars into Health Savings Accounts (HSAs) to be used for lifetime medical expenses. These measures alone would make health care more affordable for many.

These are reasonable reforms that don't rely upon the creation of a new, massive government health system. Although I oppose this bill, I will continue to fight to replace this government takeover of our healthcare system, and I remain committed to supporting Southwest Ohioans' call for commonsense solutions.

RECOGNIZING JIN LEE FOR REPRESENTING VIRGINIA AT THE "SCHOOL FLAGS ACROSS THE U.S. . . . FLYING HIGH" EVENT ON MARCH 25, 2010

HON. GERALD E. CONNOLLY

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 24, 2010

Mr. CONNOLLY of Virginia. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize Jin Lee, a resident of Woodbridge, who is representing Virginia at the National Youth Art Month event, "School Flags Across the U.S. . . . Flying High."

Jin is a talented 10th grade student from Forest Park High School in Prince William County. He is being recognized along with participants from every other state in the Youth Art Month flag design program. Jin and the rest of the winners will be honored at the Library of Congress on March 25, 2010. Jin will be attending the ceremony with his family and his teacher.

The Council for Art Education sponsors National Youth Art Month, an advocacy program held each March to emphasize the value of art and art education for all children. Students from all over the country participate in the Youth Art Month flag design program with each state selecting the flag that best represents their state and the creative spirit of Youth Art Month.

Madam Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in congratulating Jin Lee and all the winners of the Youth Art Month flag design program. I also want to recognize every participant for symbolizing the creative spirit of our youth. Their efforts in promoting the importance of art education in this country deserve our highest praise.

HONORING BILL O'CONNOR

HON. FRANK D. LUCAS

OF OKLAHOMA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 24, 2010

Mr. LUCAS. Madam Speaker, I would like to take the time to recognize the retirement of a longtime Republican aide on the House Agriculture Committee: Bill O'Conner. For more than 30 years, Bill O'Conner has come to be known as a highly knowledgeable staffer who could work with members and aides from both sides of the aisle, respected for his professionalism, and appreciated for the experience and expertise he contributed to policy discussions.

Although Bill was raised in Kansas, I am proud to recognize that he was born in my home state of Oklahoma. He graduated from Wichita State University. And after serving a tour with the Marines, he earned his master's degree at Wichita State University and continued to do doctoral work at Ohio State University.

Bill's long career on Capitol Hill began in 1979 when he first worked as an analyst for the House Republican Conference. In 1981, he became the Executive Director of the House Republican Research Committee under the Chairmanship of Rep. Ed Madigan of Illinois. Two years later when Rep. Madigan became the Ranking Republican on the House
