The SPEAKER pro tempore (during the vote). There are 2 minutes remaining in this vote.

□ 1308

So (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the resolution was agreed to.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

Stated for:

Mr. ROHRBACHER. Madam Speaker, on rollcall vote 279, passage of H. Res. 1362, I inadvertently voted "no" and meant to cast a "yea" vote.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. FARR. Madam Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to speak out of order for one minute. This morning I had the privilege of attending the funeral ceremony for Col. Dan Devlin and his wife Darlene. They were interred at Arlington National Cemetery with full honors. Col. Devlin had served as Commandant at the Defense Language Institute in Monterey in my district.

However, while I was at the funeral I missed four votes. Had I been here I would have voted in this way: "Yes" on H.R. 1514, the Juvenile Accountability Block Grant Program Reauthorization; "yes" on H.R. 5325, the America COMPETES Reauthorization; "yes" on H. Res. 1325, Recognizing National Missing Childrens Day; and "yes" on H. Res. 1362, to commend the life of Lena Horne.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, the Chair will postpone further proceedings today on motions to suspend the rules on which a recorded vote or the yeas and nays are ordered, or on which the vote incurs objection under clause 6 of rule XX.

Record votes on postponed questions will be taken later.

GENERAL LEAVE

Ms. FUDGE. Madam Speaker, I request 5 legislative days during which Members may revise and extend and insert extraneous material on H. Res. 1336 into the RECORD.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentlewoman from Ohio?

There was no objection.

Ms. FUDGE. I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Madam Speaker, I rise today in support of H. Res. 1336, which congratulates the University of Texas men's swimming and diving team for winning the NCAA Division I national championship.

On the final day of 2010 NCAA Division I men's swimming and diving championship competition, the University of Texas swim team knew they had a battle to fight. They started the day in second place, with an 18.5-point deficit to California. The Longhorns quickly roared from behind and overtook the Golden Bears, taking first place with 500 points, clinching their 2010 NCAA championship title.

This NCAA championship title is the Longhorns' first title since 2002. It is especially notable because of Head Coach Eddie Reese, the first coach in NCAA Division I men's swimming and diving history to win NCAA team titles in four separate decades. This victory grants the University of Texas its 45th all-time NCAA championship title and 49th overall national championship.

The entire Longhorn men's swim team demonstrated excellence this season and performed their best in their final matchups. I would like to especially recognize sophomore Jimmy Feigen, who took second for a second consecutive year in the 100 freestyle with a time of 41.91, and senior Dave Walters, who took eighth with a time of 42.96 in the event.

Texas expanded its lead over California to 433-408.5, after picking up 29 points in the 200 breaststroke. Texas wrapped up the meet by taking second in the 400 freestyle relay, as Walters, Feigen, Jostes, and Berens finished with a time of 2:49.9. University of Texas sophomore Eric Friedland nailed down his first individual All-American finish by taking seventh with a time of 1:54.8. Congratulations to Walters and Feigen, who were named the 2010 Big 12 Co-Swimmers of the Year, and sophomore Drew Livingston, who was named the 2010 Big 12 Diver of the Year.

Madam Speaker, once again, I express my support for H. Res. 1336 and congratulate the University of Texas men's swimming and diving team, Coach Reese on his outstanding achievements with the team, and each of the Longhorn men's swim team members on this extraordinary victory, and I urge my colleagues to support this resolution.

I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. PETRI. Madam Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

I rise today in support of the resolution before us, House Resolution 1336, congratulating the University of Texas men's swimming and diving team for winning the NCAA Division I national championship.
