

made of. It may say “faux” but this may not be accurate. Consumers who may have allergies to fur or ethical objections to fur cannot make informed purchases. Our constituents have the right to know what they are purchasing and wearing.

This bill was introduced in response to a series of investigations of fur products sold at major retailers across the country. This investigation found that a significant number of clothes designers and retailers were selling some fur-trimmed garments that were described as faux when actually they turned out to be real fur. This legislation is about transparency and providing consumers with accurate information on what they're buying.

This legislation simply requires that fur-trimmed garments meet the same labeling standard already in place for fur garments of a higher dollar value. It does not affect the trade in any animal fur or the methods used to produce animal fur. The legislation also asks the Federal Trade Commission to review the Fur Products Name Guide and ensure accuracy and consistency of species names.

I supported this legislation in the 110th Congress, and strongly support it today.

Mr. Speaker, I want to strongly add my support to H.R. 2480, the Truth in Fur Labeling Act of 2009.

HONORING THE LIFE OF LORENZEN WRIGHT

HON. STEVE COHEN

OF TENNESSEE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, July 29, 2010

Mr. COHEN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the life of Memphian and NBA star Lorenzen Wright. Mr. Wright was born in Memphis, Tennessee and attended the historic Booker T. Washington High School. After graduating, he attended the University of Memphis where he helped lead the team to the “Sweet Sixteen” in the 1995 NCAA tournament. While there, he was selected Third Team All-American by the Associated Press and earned the nickname “The Howl” because of his tendency to yell after exciting plays.

In 1996, after playing two seasons for the Memphis Tigers, Mr. Wright entered the NBA draft and was selected 7th overall by the Los Angeles Clippers. After three seasons with the Clippers, he played for the Atlanta Hawks for two years before returning home to play for the newly relocated Memphis Grizzlies in 2001.

For Lorenzen Wright, playing for his hometown team at the professional level gave him a chance to play alongside some of the best athletes for the city he loved. During his tenure with the Grizzlies, he became an emotional leader of the team, bringing passion and dedication to each and every game. Friend and former NBA star Penny Hardaway recalled the fans' love for Lorenzen and how “he attacked the game every single night.” After five seasons with the Memphis Grizzlies, he was traded back to the Atlanta Hawks and has since played for the Sacramento Kings and most recently the Cleveland Cavaliers until his retirement in 2009.

Off the basketball court, Lorenzen Wright was a devoted family man and a loyal friend.

He is survived by six children, Lorenzen Jr., Loren, twins Lamar and Shamar, Lawson and Sofia, his parents Herb Wright and Deborah Marion and a host of family and friends. Lorenzen Wright's passing is a great loss to our city and the basketball world. I will miss him as a friend and appreciate all he did for Memphis.+

HONORING DON EUCARIO
BERMUDEZ

HON. MARIO DIAZ-BALART

OF FLORIDA

Thursday, July 29, 2010

Mr. MARIO DIAZ-BALART of Florida. Madam Speaker, this month Colombia celebrates 200 years as a sovereign nation. As we congratulate our democratic ally and friend on its bicentennial, it is fitting that we also honor some of Colombia's finest, and among them, is Eucario Bermudez.

This distinguished journalist got his start as a broadcaster, radio host and General Director of Radio Caracol Colombia. While in Colombia, he also produced and directed various TV programs, earning him the “Premio Ondas de España” a prestigious award for journalism given by Spain. In 1981, he moved to Miami, expanding the radio station to the United States. He established Radio Klaridad, which later became Radio Calidad and is now a days the very popular Radio Caracol in South Florida. He has since been director of the station, which together with its sister station Radio Caracol Colombia, broadcasts news in both the United States and Colombia.

Don Eucario also oversees community relations for Radio Caracol, leads the news department, and continues to broadcast daily on his show “The Voice of the Community,” as well as the noon news cast. He does so with true professionalism, honesty and a commitment to reporting the truth, always maintaining a fair and balanced approach.

What stands out most about Don Eucario is his activism and service to the community. He has been president of the Colombian American Chamber of Commerce, founded the Association of Colombian News Outlets and Journalists in the United States, the Colombian American Association, known as CASA, and the first ever Colombian Political Action Committee, COLPAC. He has published several works about the economy, small businesses, entrepreneurship and immigration, and has been recognized by various local governments and the Florida State Legislature for his service to the development of the Colombian American community in South Florida as well as his contributions in the field of journalism.

Although he has called South Florida home for nearly three decades, Don Eucario is still as passionate about his native Colombia as he is about the United States and works to ensure that the Colombian American community has a voice and that its needs are represented. Above all, he is committed to promoting democracy and speaking out for those who cannot express themselves as freely as he can.

I ask that you join me in thanking and honoring Eucario Bermudez, a fine journalist and friend, for his service to the community and his commitment to always speaking the truth.

HONORING THE FRANK L. MITCHELL POST 3335 OF THE VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS

HON. MICHAEL H. MICHAUD

OF MAINE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, July 29, 2010

Mr. MICHAUD. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the Frank L. Mitchell Post 3335 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars as they celebrate their 75th anniversary.

The mission of Veterans of Foreign Wars is to honor the dead by helping the living, and the Frank L. Mitchell Post 3335 in Jay, Maine, has spent the past 75 years meeting this goal. Post members have honored their fallen comrades in the community and have strived to ensure that all veterans receive the benefits they deserve. The Post honors those who remain Prisoners of War or Missing in Action and ensures that the community never forgets the sacrifices of these service members and their families.

Post 3335 helps improve the civic engagement of its community by sponsoring the local Patriot's Pen competition. This essay writing competition is designed to foster patriotism by giving students in grades six, seven and eight the opportunity to write essays expressing their views on democracy. Additionally, their homecoming celebrations continue to provide Jay with occasions to come together as a community.

The people of Jay know firsthand the important role Post 3335 has played in the life of their town. Through their countless hours of volunteer work and remarkable commitment to our veterans, the members of Post 3336 have been a shining light to some of our nation's most deserving citizens.

Madam Speaker, please join me in congratulating the members of the Frank L. Mitchell Post 3335 as they celebrate their 75th anniversary and thanking them for their tremendous contributions to the Jay community and to the State of Maine.

HONORING MR. FABIO ANDRADE

HON. MARIO DIAZ-BALART

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, July 29, 2010

Mr. MARIO DIAZ-BALART of Florida. Madam Speaker, this week Colombia celebrates 200 years as a sovereign nation. As we congratulate our democratic ally and friend on its Bicentennial, it is fitting that we also honor some of Colombia's finest, and among them, is Fabio Andrade.

Fabio is one of South Florida's most dedicated, selfless and tireless community activists. He leads the Colombian American community with conviction and commitment. He is a leading voice in urging the passage of a Free Trade Agreement between the United States and Colombia and is an advocate of strengthening the partnership between the two countries. Fabio understands that as the hemisphere's leading democracies, Colombia and the United States are positioned to make an impact through trade, the creation of jobs and a steadfast commitment to spreading democracy throughout Latin America.
