

HONORING DETROIT CATHOLIC
CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL TENNIS TEAM

HON. THADDEUS G. McCOTTER

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 16, 2010

Mr. McCOTTER. Madam Speaker, today I rise to acknowledge the Division 1 State Champion Tennis team from my alma mater, Detroit Catholic Central High School. Netting their first championship since 1986, this title marks the third state champion campaign for the Shamrocks.

Before the 2010 season began the Catholic Central Tennis team suffered the most devastating loss in their history when Varsity Assistant and Junior Varsity Head Coach Jim Zapton succumbed to a sudden heart attack. Shocked by the loss of their beloved Coach Z, the team needed to find a way to overcome their grief. They did so by playing in his memory and dedicating their season to him. Twelve top-notch players came together under the common goal of winning as Shamrocks not individuals. The result couldn't have been better and Coach Jim Zapton would no doubt be very proud of his young men.

Initially pegged as the number 3 team in Michigan's Division I rankings behind Ann Arbor Pioneer and Ann Arbor Huron, Head Coach Jim Stafford's squad took the number one ranking on September 27th after having soundly defeated both the Pioneers and the River Rats. The Shamrocks posted a record of 8-0 in dual meets and won 7 tournaments this season enroute to the Catholic League title.

CC dominated the Regional Championship, racking up 31 points to outpace Novi's 2nd place showing of 18. The Blue and White headed to Midland for the State competition with four number 1 seeds and 3 number 2 seeds. On October 16, 2010, after entering the tournament semifinals tied at 23 points with Ann Arbor Pioneer, the Catholic Central Shamrocks capped off an incredible season by defeating Pioneers 32-30 and hoisted the MHSAA trophy.

Coach Joe Stafford credits Coach Jim Zapton's mantra of being a good teammate, playing the right way and putting the team first with solidifying the phenomenal chemistry that led to his team's success. The hard work and dedication of all of its members epitomizes what it means to be a Shamrock. By the teaching of our Basilian Fathers through goodness, discipline and knowledge the entire Catholic Central family, including this alumnus, shares in this accomplishment.

Madam Speaker, after earning the Division 1 State Championship, the 2010 Catholic Central Shamrocks deserve to be recognized for their determination, achievement and spirit. In recognition of their effort and in memory of Coach Jim Zapton, I ask my colleagues to join me in congratulating the Shamrocks for obtaining this spectacular title and honoring their devotion to our community and country. Live and Die for CC High!

RECOGNIZING THE LANGFORD
FAMILY AS THE 2010 HOLMES
COUNTY OUTSTANDING FARM
FAMILY OF THE YEAR

HON. JEFF MILLER

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 16, 2010

Mr. MILLER of Florida. Madam Speaker, it is a great pleasure for me to rise today to extend congratulations to the Langford family for being selected as the 2010 Holmes County Outstanding Farm Family of the Year.

The Langford family farm, located in Westville, Florida, has been a staple of Holmes County since the 1920s. Its owners, Luke and Laurie Langford, have two young sons, Mason and Carson, and are active members of the Holmes County Farm Bureau and Florida Farm Bureau Young Farmer and Rancher Leadership Group.

For the past 24 years, Luke has operated the 1,100-acre farm. Over the years, the farm has become home to a diversified agricultural enterprise, with commercial cow and calf farming, cattle pre-conditioning, custom beef and hay production. The farm produces fruits and vegetables and wood-based products. Additionally, the Langford family farm's picturesque landscape provides a fitting setting for agritourism activities, including fishing, trail rides, dove hunting and a pumpkin patch for Halloween.

Madam Speaker, our great nation was built by farmers and their families. The Langford family stands as an excellent example of the farm families that have been the backbone of Holmes County, Florida, and our nation. On behalf of northwest Florida, I wish the Langford family continued success and hope that their family tradition will continue to prosper for many future generations to come.

TRIBUTE TO RIVERSIDE COUNTY'S
RECIPIENTS OF OPERATION REC-OGNITION

HON. KEN CALVERT

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 16, 2010

Mr. CALVERT. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor and pay tribute to a group of individuals—heroes—who are receiving the recognition and honor they deserve for their service to our country. Operation Recognition is operated by the Riverside County Office of Education with assistance from the Riverside County Department of Veterans' Services. The program awards high school diplomas to veterans who missed completing high school due to military service in World War II, the Korean war, or the Vietnam war, or due to internment in WWII Japanese-American relocation camps.

A recognition ceremony was held on November 12, 2010, for the following individuals who received their high school diplomas through Operation Recognition: Clifford Burdick, Charles D. Case, Galen L. Christman, Ronald E. Costi, Bill E. Crowe, Howard N. Curren, Michael J. Hendershot, Martin W. Keller, James F. Lancaster, William A. Lea, Jose Macias, Alfred M. Martocchio, Bobby G. McPherson, Robert Moreno, Albert R. Munoz, Jr., John M. Palmer, Benjamin A. Perry, Rocky S. Porter, Frank Z. Ramirez, Steve Ramirez, Frank R. Sanchez, Raphael V. Shapiro, Jack Sims, Patrick Stanley, Matthew I. Stein, Mar-ion A. Sugamele, Gregg Thompson, and Michael D. Witfoth.

Our country owes a debt of gratitude to all the above recipients for their service and sacrifice. I salute all the above individuals and congratulate them on receiving their high school diploma.

HONORING DR. ROBERT HARVEY

HON. JOHN J. DUNCAN, JR.

OF TENNESSEE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 16, 2010

Mr. DUNCAN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor an educator and mentor from my District in Knoxville, Tennessee, who has dedicated his life to young people and Knoxville College, the institution he loves.

Dr. Robert Harvey has stepped down as President of the College, and he leaves behind an institution much stronger because of his selfless devotion to the school, its students, faculty, and staff.

Dr. Harvey's tenure at Knoxville College spans 68 years, beginning with his time as a student through his time as a beloved professor and finally, the school's President.

I am proud of the role that Knoxville College has played in my District. As Co-Chairman of the House Historically Black Colleges and Universities Caucus, I have always offered whatever support I could to assist the school through the years.

No one has done more for Knoxville College than Dr. Harvey. As long as I can remember, he has always been there when needed.

After graduating from the school in 1946, he went on to teach mathematics. Even after his retirement in 1988, Dr. Harvey continued to teach on a part-time basis and stepped in as interim President four times.

On the occasion of his retirement, Knoxville College has dedicated a scholarship in his name, which will be awarded to a student pursuing higher education in math and science.

Dr. Harvey told the Knoxville News Sentinel that the measure of an institution is how far the student travels. No one has traveled further or sacrificed more to ensure Knoxville College's place for future generations than Dr. Robert Harvey.

I have the privilege of being a member of Eastminster Presbyterian Church, the same church to which Dr. Harvey and his wonderful wife, Edwina, also belong.

Bob and Edwina are two of the kindest, most compassionate people I have ever known.

Both grew up, as my father did, in what would be considered bitter poverty today. But far from being bitter, they are two of the most grateful, appreciative people that one could find.

They are grateful to both God and country, and this Nation would be a much better place if there were more people like Dr. Robert and Edwina Harvey.

Madam Speaker, I urge my Colleagues and other readers of the RECORD to join me in congratulating Dr. Harvey, at the age of 87, on the occasion of his much-earned retirement.
