ADJOURNMENT TO MONDAY,
FEBRUARY 14, 2011

As the gentleman knows, we passed a rule for its consideration yesterday. The balance of the week will be spent on H.R. 1, a bill to fund the government through the remainder of the fiscal year. And I yield back.

Mr. HOYER. I thank the gentleman for yielding.

Let me ask the gentleman, he mentioned on Thursday, is the gentleman confident we will be leaving by 3 o'clock or shortly thereafter on Thursday and doesn't expect to be here on Friday?

Mr. CANTOR. I will say to the gentleman from Maryland that he is correct. We expect to abide by the calendar and the provisions set for it therein, intending to depart here by 3 p.m. on Thursday of next week.

Mr. HOYER. I thank the gentleman for that comment. I know the gentleman will be brief today. But I do want to ask a question with reference to the 302(a) allocations, 302(b) allocations that the Appropriations Committee dealt with and then dealt with a product consistent with those numbers.

It is my understanding that that has now changed or is expected to change in terms of the 302(b) allocation numbers and that they are being modified; am I correct? As I understand it, they have not been modified in the Appropriations Committee and will not be subject to a vote in the Appropriations Committee, and that that number out of the Appropriations Committee may not be the number that will be reported out to the floor next week. Is that correct?

Mr. CANTOR. I would say to the gentleman, 302(a) always was intended to be spending brought down to 2008 levels or less. And that is the intention of the bill that will come to the floor next week, H.R. 1, that we will abide by our commitment to reduce discretionary nonsecurity spending by $100 billion for the remainder of the fiscal year.

Mr. HOYER. I thank the gentleman for that answer. Will there be another markup of the Appropriations Committee to attain that number?

Mr. CANTOR. I would say to the gentleman, it is very straightforward. The next action of the committee will be to file the bill. The bill will be put online this evening for the public to see, for Members to review, so that we abide by the rules of this House which require for a 3-day layover prior to taking up a bill for debate on the floor of the House.

Mr. HOYER. I thank the gentleman and will end it with this: I am then to understand there will be no markup in the Appropriations Committee on the proposed cuts that will be brought to the floor? Am I correct in that?

Mr. CANTOR. The gentleman is correct.

Mr. HOYER. I thank the gentleman. We can discuss it at a later time when we have more time.

Mr. CANTOR. I thank the gentleman very much.

Mr. CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that when the House adjourns today, it adjourn to meet on Monday next, when it shall convene at noon for morning-hour debate and 2 p.m. for legislative business.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.

HONORING ROBERT H. SHUMAKER
AND THE VIETNAM PRISONERS OF WAR

(Mr. DOLD asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. DOLD. Mr. Speaker, today I rise to address this body because in 1965 on this day, my uncle Robert Harper Shumaker was shot down over North Vietnam. He was the second pilot shot down and spent 8 years and 1 day in captivity. Tomorrow we celebrate the release of the POWs in Vietnam, a day that many will remember, one of the bright spots of the Vietnam war, when so many of our servicemen were released. Those 8 years in captivity, while we can never regain those years, we can never thank the heroes for what they have done quite fully. But we can remember and we can thank them for all that they have done. Those that wear the uniform today, we thank you for your service.

I am honored today to be among my new colleagues, the gentleman from Texas, SAM JOHNSON, who has served in this House ably for a long number of years. He actually served with my uncle and was next door in solitary confinement for over 3 years. So today, while we remember those who were shot down in 1965, my uncle Robert Harper Shumaker, tomorrow we recognize all those who were released.

NORTHEAST REGION UNITED WAY
211

(Mr. TONKO asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. TONKO. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the Northeast Region United Way 211. United Way 211 is a free, confidential number to call for anyone who needs help and answers in the capital region, from securing adequate care for a child to helping an aging parent to finding substance abuse assistance.

Mr. Speaker, 2010 was a busy year for United Way 211 northeast region, with over 9,100 calls, and they are projecting over 1,000 calls a month for 2011. Why do people call this number? The top reasons deal with some of the most basic needs a person has: keeping a roof over one's head, putting food on the table, and trying to find a place to go to work.
