

with friends in the pews, or leading the Carter-Westminster Exercise Group. She was recently chosen as Carter-Westminster's "S.Y.S.K." (Someone You Should Know), an honor she has earned and richly deserves.

Above all, Doris Nadder loves her family. She and her husband Dick were married in 1956, and raised three beautiful children—Claudia, Allison, and James. Her three grandchildren, Colin, Adam, and Jason are the lights of her life, whom she rates as "Ten Pluses."

Doris and Dick Nadder are avid readers and world travelers, having visited Spain, Austria, England and France. She has brought new meaning to the word 'retired', walking three miles daily, painting beautiful watercolors, practicing her calligraphy, and occasionally even working part-time.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in honoring my very special cousin, Doris Nadder. She enriches the lives of everyone who knows her, and she brings constant joy to her family and wide circle of friends. I'm proud to pay tribute to a woman who lives her faith every day of her life, strengthens each of us with her integrity, and makes her community and our country stronger and better with all she does.

THE ABILITYONE PROGRAM

HON. JOHN FLEMING

OF LOUISIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, June 16, 2011

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to acknowledge the positive influence of the AbilityOne Program in my district. Since its establishment in 1971, AbilityOne has grown to become the largest source of employment for those who are blind or have other severe disabilities in the United States.

Individuals employed through the AbilityOne Program provide vital services to hundreds of nonprofit organizations and the federal government. Within my district both the Fort Polk/Joint Readiness Training Center and Barksdale Air Force Base employ individuals enrolled in the AbilityOne Program. By assisting those who are blind or severely disabled in finding and keeping jobs, AbilityOne vastly improves participants' quality of life, giving them the dignity of work and the security of financial support.

I am proud to support the underlying goals and purpose of the AbilityOne Program, and commend the many constituents I have in the 4th District of Louisiana who have found meaningful and productive employment through this program. I realize Fort Polk's and Barksdale's AbilityOne employees are critical to the success of these installations and their important missions.

With great honor, I applaud the AbilityOne Program and its participants for making a difference in unemployment among people with disabilities in Louisiana and throughout the United States.
