

it could care less what Congress has ordered about helping the enemies of Israel, about helping those who are terrorizing and persecuting Christians in Egypt and destroying churches and eliminating freedom of religion, and are saying they want to rethink their peace accord with Israel and setting themselves up to be the enemy of Israel. And now this administration, knowing that Congress passed a law that says you can't give people money in Egypt unless you can certify to certain facts—and they cannot, not honestly. If they do so now with what we know publicly, we know they will not be honest in doing so, and they're going to give $1.5 billion, not in humanitarian aid, according to this story, not food—military aid.

So forget all of those speeches that this President gave at AIPAC: Oh, gosh. We're Israel's best friend. We're going to help them. Because, oh, no, we're going to give people who have the power to destroy Israel, on the border with Israel, military aid, as they are planning—many there make it clear they hate Israel, they hate us, and I've said over and over: We don't have to pay people to hate us. They'll do it for free.

We have to quit funding the enemy of us and the enemy of our friends. This is insane. And I hope somewhere in this administration is a cooler head that will say, Mr. President, Madam Secretary, Israel is our friend. Remember the speeches you've both given about what a friend they are? And it's time that we do not provide military aid, abetting, and assistance to people that want to destroy Christians, that want to destroy Israelis, and that want to put the world in turmoil and have everyone living exactly as they dictate. We want to keep some freedoms here and in Israel, and the way to do that is not to fund and provide military assistance to anyone unless we know they are our friend, they're Israel's friend, they're the friends of our friends.

To do otherwise will bring calamity on this country like they will not realize until it's too late.

With that, Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.
