

1973, El Pomar has granted millions of dollars to worthwhile projects and continues to grant approximately $20 million annually. Bill has expanded the general-purpose foundation, creating many programs that focus on excellence in individual and organizational leadership. Because of his service, communities across Colorado are more empowered to improve their quality of life. The fact that the Association of Fundraising Professionals recognized El Pomar in 1998 as the National Foundation of the Year is a testament to Bill's strategic vision and leadership.

Bill is also vice chairman of the board of BROADMOOR Hotel, Inc—a true Colorado landmark—and is president of the Air Force Academy Foundation and the Hundred Club of Colorado Springs. In 2009, Bill received the Outward Bound Compass Award for a lifetime of outstanding service to America's young people. And in 2005, Bill was reelected to the Colorado College Board of Trustees and in 2003 named Citizen of the West. Additionally, he serves on the boards of directors for Garden City Company, in Garden City, KS; FirstBank Holding Company of Colorado in Denver, CO; and Mountain States Employers Council in Denver.

Perhaps most importantly, Bill and his wife Kathleen have two sons and six beautiful grandchildren.

Colorado is fortunate to be home to a citizen like Bill Hybl. I would like to congratulate him for all of his accomplishments, thank him for his endless service, and honor him on his 70th birthday. I look forward to many more years of Bill's leadership in the Centennial State.●
