THE OCCASION OF THE FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF THE OAKLAND LIVINGSTON HUMAN SERVICE AGENCY

HON. GARY C. PETERS

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, July 17, 2014

Mr. PETERS of Michigan. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the Oakland Livingston Human Service Agency's (OLHSA) 50th Anniversary. OLHSA, founded in 1964 as a part of President Lyndon B. Johnson's War on Poverty, provides over 70 collaborative programs to the elderly, disabled, and low-income residents of Oakland and Livingston Counties.

Created with the mission of empowering individuals to attain self-sufficiency, OLHSA has developed a long record of success. Just last year, it provided information, advice, and material assistance to over 50,000 people—support that helped them to improve their own lives, as well as the vitality of their communities. OLHSA provided them with crucial resources such as food assistance, tax preparation, financial planning, foreclosure prevention counseling, referral guidance, early childhood development and energy assistance.

Recognizing the key role that education plays as a tool that empowers individuals to shape their own future, OLHSA has directed significant resources into education at the youngest ages with its Head Start program. Centered on the principle of involving parents directly in their children's learning process, OLHSA sees its Head Start program as a vital component of its efforts to break the poverty cycle. Through this program, OLHSA continues to demonstrate its commitment to strengthening communities by providing the basic services that enable its clients to attain prosperity.

Veterans facing housing insecurity can also turn to OLHSA to access the VA Supportive Services for the Veteran Families program, which was created with the goal of eliminating homelessness amongst veterans and their families. By providing case management, rent payment assistance, and emergency housing, OLHSA energetically works to ensure that veteran families in Oakland and Livingston Counties receive the housing and peace of mind they deserve.

Mr. Speaker, as the Oakland Livingston Human Services Agency celebrates its 50th Anniversary of service to communities across Southeastern Michigan, I ask my colleagues to join me in recognizing the remarkable impact it has made on its clients. Thanks to OLHSA's leadership and the dedication of its staff, many tens of thousands of residents of Oakland and Livingston counties of Michigan have received support at critical moments in their lives. In the face of the recent economic challenges in Michigan, OLHSA's programs were vital to families' continued well-being. I congratulate OLHSA's staff on all of their organization's accomplishments over the last five decades and I look forward to continuing to work with them to strengthen the Southeast Michigan community by empowering its residents with the necessary tools to build a successful future.

INTRODUCTION OF THE PREVENTING TERMINATION OF UTILITY SERVICES IN BANKRUPTCY ACT OF 2014

HON. JOHN CONYERS, JR.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, July 17, 2014

Mr. CONYERS. Mr. Speaker, utility companies provide many basic and life-saving services, such as electricity to light our homes, water to drink, and gas to heat our homes. Sometimes, however, individuals, through no fault of their own, struggle to pay for these services often in the face of devastating medical debt, job loss, or economic disruption caused by divorce. While resorting to bankruptcy provides some relief from financial distress, current law permits utility companies to force these debtors to pay security deposits for continued service even if they were current on their bills before filing for bankruptcy or if they promise to be current on their bills after bankruptcy. Utility companies typically insist that debtors pay at least two months or more of their average bills as a deposit—in addition to requiring that they remain current on their utility bills after bankruptcy—in exchange for the utility continuing to supply service.

H.R. _____, the "Preventing Termination of Utility Service in Bankruptcy Act of 2014," corrects this injustice. It provides that if the debtor remains current on his or her utility bills after filing for bankruptcy relief, the debtor should not have to pay a deposit to the utility to continue service.

In Detroit, for example, families across the city have seen their water rates increase by 119 percent over the past decade. During the same period, the Nation generally and Detroit in particular suffered in the aftermath of a global financial crisis that left one-in-five local residences in foreclosure and sent local unemployment rates skyrocketing.

Fortunately, we are incrementally recovering from the Great Recession of 2008. For those individuals who must seek bankruptcy relief, however, we should ensure that their ability to pay their utility bills going forward is not hindered by unnecessary demands for deposits if these debtors remain current on their payments to these companies.

Terminating a family's access to such life-saving services that keeps the lights on, warms our homes, and ensures that they can bathe, hydrate and prepare meals is simply wrong if these utility bills are being paid on time.

This legislation is part of a range of solutions that are needed to address the still pervasive adverse impacts of the Great Recession of 2008. I continue to work with my colleagues in Congress, state and federal officials, and my constituents to defend the right to water and protect public health. I will not tolerate the notion that—in the 21st Century, in the wealthiest nation on earth—families should go without access to affordable public water and sanitation services.

A TRIBUTE TO THE JERSEY BOYS . . . THE FOUR SEASONS: A BAND FOR ALL SEASONS . . . DOO WOP DO WA!

HON. BILL PASCHELL, JR.

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, July 17, 2014

Mr. PASCHELL. Mr. Speaker, I submit the following poem penned by Albert Carey Caswell.

"Are the stars out tonight"
 "it doesn't matter who's wrong or right"
 "I've only got eyes for you" . . .
 doo wop do wa!
 In the rhythm of our lives . . .
 In these moments that we're alive . . .
 All in the music of our lives!
 Comes these beats,
 these rhythms,
 and these measures . . .
 we all so feel inside . . .
 These lyrics . . .
 these sounds . . .
 which so gives us such pleasure,
 all in our strides . . .
 All within our hearts,
 which so makes us cry . . .
 Taking us all so back in time,
 to all those moments . . .
 we so cherished so deep down inside . . .
 Which so "Stay" with us,
 as so timelessly they do reside!
 And no matter where we are,
 when we hear them we all so smile . . .
 Making us all want to get up and dance,
 so all the while!
 To move to that beat,
 to that music,
 to that rhythm,
 to that cadence oh so very sweet!
 As it was the birth of Rock and Roll,
 and doo wop was King as so!
 When a King once so ruled the show!
 The one who could so shake,
 rattle,
 and roll!

As Dick Clark,
and The American Band Stand, so helped that vibe to grow!
As a group of Beatles invaded our coast!
As Motown but meant the most!
And for our Boys in Nam, marching through those jungles,
it so helped them cope!
As music was everywhere,
touching our very souls there!
When a group of . . .
Jersey Boys let it rip . . . let it go!
Starting out as The Four Lovers . . .
then into The Lovers . . .
Becoming A Band for all The Seasons those record covers those . . .
And then Franki "Working It's Way Back To You" . . . like no others you!
As The Four Seasons . . . oh!
Because "Breaking Up Is Hard To Do!"
Seasons change but still over,
100 million records have been sold!
As why A Band For All Seasons,
we now know!
FEE . . . FI . . . FO . . . FOM as these Jersey
Giants turned music into GOLD!
With the founding members Franki,
and Bob being raised in the depression, like a "RAG DOLL" it left them with quite an impression!
Maybe that's why,
their music lift's us all up so!
And there's nothing false,
about Franki's 3 octave voice,
and falssetto!
As it makes you feel like your in heaven,
even when your in a ghetto . . .
Cutting deep into our hearts like a stiletto!
As to that depression they said,
"Dawn, (Go Away) . . . your no good for me" learning life's lessons!
Forming a band,
to so make all their dreams come true!
Knowing,
they had to "Walk Like A Man" . . .
and "talk like a man" too!
They did not go "Begging" as they knew . . . "Big Girls Don't Cry", and neither do Big Guys too . . .
Yea "that's just an alibi . . .
they don't cry"
As to heartache they said "Bye Bye Baby (Baby Goodbye)" . . .
And "Let's Hang On" (to what we got), and "Don't Think Twice It's Alright" . . .
As all in these The Seasons of our lives,
they have left us with such a warm hue!
That's why on any radio station today,
"There's Always Something There To Remind Me" of The Four Seasons you!

With 46 hits on Billboards Hot 40, that's true!
Yea, "I Got You Under My Skin"!
Because your music goes with me wherever I go, and been!
Yea I, "Can't Take My Eyes Off Of
You" nor my ears too!
Yea your music,
Your Just To Good To Be True"
And even "Ronnie" . . .
Ronald Reagan loved you!
And after the concert's over,
they'll be crying too,
"Aint That Shame"!
"Oh What A Night" "SHERRY" listening to you!
"Alone (Why Must We Be Alone)"?
Can't you just play one more song?
Because before The New York Giants moved to Jersey,
this place was already inhabited by Four Giants who this state so owned!
The Jersey Boys music, too all our hearts so roamed!
Even The Great One,
Frank from Hoboken, would have paid many a token to listen to you and your records to own!
Because in The Seasons of our lives, all in our thoughts and hearts so deep down inside . . .
There is some music upon our souls rely!
That when we are feeling low,
gives hearts to rise!
That we will treasure,
and cherish until the day we die!
The Fours Seasons,
are but an important put of all our lives!
And why for so many reasons,
you guys are The Band Four All Seasons!
"Are the stars out tonight" "it doesn't matter who's wrong or right" "I've only got eyes for you" . . . doo wop do wa!
Oh Jersey Boys how you do what you do to us so all inside!
Doo wop do waaaaaiaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaa!

RECOGNIZING CHIEF TONY SCHNELL AND CAPTAIN KURT IRELAND

HON. TOM REED

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, July 17, 2014

Mr. REED. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the decorated careers of Chief Tony Schnell and Captain Kurt Ireland of the Olean Police Department. Longtime members of the department, Chief Schnell and Captain Ireland have a combined 68 years of dedicated service to the Olean community.

Tony Schnell joined the Olean Police Department in 1982 and rose to the rank of chief in 2006. Throughout his 32-year career, Chief Schnell earned the trust and respect of his fellow officers, city leaders, and citizens. During his time with the Olean Police Department, Chief Schnell completed training at the FBI Academy, learning advanced skills and strategies that have positively benefited the department. Throughout his tenure as chief, Mr. Schnell repeatedly fought to secure necessary funding and support for the police department. His career exemplifies the values outlined in the department's mission statement, serving with "integrity, common sense, and sound judgment."

Kurt Ireland joined the Olean Police Department in 1977. He spent the majority of his 36-year career with the department's patrol division, earning promotions to sergeant in 1993 and captain in 1998. While holding these leadership positions, Captain Ireland managed the daily operations of his unit and established department procedures. Captain Ireland was a responsible, dedicated, and hard-working officer who served his community with the highest level of integrity.

I congratulate Chief Tony Schnell and Captain Kurt Ireland on their retirement from the Olean Police Department. We owe these men a debt of gratitude for their combined 68 years of service to the Olean community. Their impressive careers in law enforcement and numerous contributions to our community improved quality of life and made Olean a safer place to live.
