

them—even though he wasn't on the committee that made the decision.

He truly was the conscience of the Congress.

My most vivid memory of Congressman Edwards was in 1992, when I narrowly lost my first race for the House. He was the dean of the California delegation at the time, and I was attending the orientation for new Members of Congress, not knowing whether I would ultimately be elected.

In those moments of great anxiety, he showed me great kindness. He walked with me, distracted me from the election news and demonstrated the class and sincerity that he was known for.

Congressman Edwards had a tremendous impact on me and many other people across the country. His legacy is a reminder of Congress' capacity to do great things.
