PROVIDING FOR CONGRESSIONAL DISAPPROVAL OF A RULE SUBMITTED BY THE CORPS OF ENGINEERS AND THE ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The unfinished business is the vote on passage of the joint resolution (S.J. Res. 22) providing for congressional disapproval under chapter 8 of title 5, United States Code, of the rule submitted by the Corps of Engineers and the Environmental Protection Agency relating to the definition of “waters of the United States” under the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, on which the yeas and nays were ordered.

The Clerk read the title of the joint resolution.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the passage of the joint resolution.

This is a 5-minute vote.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 253, nays 166, not voting 14, as follows:

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (during the vote). There are 2 minutes remaining.

□ 1155

Mr. VEASEY changed his vote from “nay” to “yea.”

The joint resolution was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

Stated for:

Mr. YOHO. Mr. Speaker, on rollcall No. 45, on S.J. Res. 22, I missed the vote. Had I been present, I would have voted “yes.”

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. KNIGHT. Mr. Speaker, on Wednesday, January 13th, I had to return to the district to attend to urgent constituent business related to the Aliso Canyon gas leak. Had I been present for the day's vote series, I would have voted “yea” on rollcall No. 44, the passage of S.J. Res. 22, providing for congressional disapproval under chapter 8 of title 5, United States Code, of the rule submitted by the Corps of Engineers and the Environmental Protection Agency relating to the definition of “waters of the United States” under the Federal Water Pollution Control Act; and “yea” on rollcall No. 45, the passage of H.R. 3662 or the Iran Terror Finance Transparency Act.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY COMMITTEE ON RULES REGARDING AMENDMENTS TO H.R. 3442, DEBT MANAGEMENT AND FISCAL RESPONSIBILITY ACT OF 2015

(Mr. SESSIONS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. SESSIONS. Mr. Speaker, today the Rules Committee issued an announcement outlining the amendment process for H.R. 3442, the Debt Management and Fiscal Responsibility Act of 2015. An amendment deadline has been set for Thursday, January 21, 2016, at 12:00 p.m. That is also known as noon.

Amendments should be drafted to the text of the bill as reported by the Committee on Ways and Means, which is posted on the Rules Committee Web site. Please feel free to contact me or a member of the Rules Committee if we may be of assistance to any Member in their preparations.

VACATING VOTE ON H.R. 3662, IRAN TERROR FINANCE TRANSPARENCY ACT

Mr. MCCARTHY. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the proceedings by which the bill (H.R. 3662) to enhance congressional oversight over the administration of sanctions against certain terrorism financiers, and for other purposes, was passed and the motion to reconsider was laid on the table be vacated and that further proceedings on the question of passage of H.R. 3662 may be postponed through the legislative day of January 26, 2016, as though under clause 8 of rule XX.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

Mr. HOYER. Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object—and I do not intend to object—I want to thank the majority leader. I personally, as a former majority leader, appreciate the policy enunciated by the Speaker in turn to accommodate Members' schedules so that we vote on time. But this was an extraordinarily important vote. Large numbers of Members of both sides missed it, and I very much appreciate the majority leader's action and the Speaker's agreement to it to accommodate our Members so that, on this important bill, they will be able to vote on the 26th.

Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my reservation of objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The reservation of objection is withdrawn.

Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Proceedings whereby the motion to reconsider was laid on the table and by which the House passed H.R. 3662 are vacated, and further proceedings on the questions of passage of H.R. 3662 are postponed pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX and the order of the House of today.

ADJOURNMENT FROM WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 13, 2016, TO FRIDAY, JANUARY 15, 2016

Mr. HOLDING. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that, when the House adjourns today, it adjourn to meet at 1 p.m. on Friday, January 15, 2016.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. DONOVAN). Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from North Carolina?

There was no objection.

CONGRATULATING ZIPPY DUVALL, FARM BUREAU FEDERATION'S NEW PRESIDENT

(Mr. ALLEN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, today I join my colleagues in the Georgia delegation, Representative AUSTIN SCOTT and Representative BUDDY CARTER, to recognize Zippy Duvall, the American Farm Bureau Federation's new president.

As a third-generation dairy farmer, who better than Zippy would know what our farmers and agriculture sector need to succeed?

Zippy and his wife, Bonnie, maintain a 300-head beef cow herd, produce quality hay, and have developed a very successful poultry production company, growing out over 75,000 broilers per year.

Zippy formerly served as president of the Georgia Farm Bureau, and will replace president Bob Stall, the national president, who is retiring after 16 years.

Zippy has a passion for agriculture like no other. It is in his blood.
