

sports heritage, fishing and recreational shooting heritage, as well as all of us that love to hunt.

Mr. Speaker, I now yield to the gentleman from Minnesota (Mr. WALZ). He is the co-chair of the caucus and winner of the Democratic Top Gun award.

Mr. WALZ. Mr. Speaker, I would like to thank my co-chair of the Congressional Sportsmen's Caucus, the gentleman from Virginia, and congratulate the Republican team for a strong showing this year. You certainly raised the bar for next year.

This event highlights that, in the largest bipartisan caucus in Congress, we collaboratively work together to protect this Nation's hunting, fishing, and outdoor heritage. I am proud of the Members who come out there. They give to the great cause of this, and we continue that heritage.

So again, I congratulate the Republicans for some fine shooting. I look forward to next year and the work we do together.

SECURING ACCESS TO NETWORKS IN DISASTERS ACT

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. WOMACK). Without objection, 5-minute voting will continue.

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The unfinished business is the vote on the motion to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H.R. 3998) to direct the Federal Communications Commission to commence proceedings related to the resiliency of critical telecommunications networks during times of emergency, and for other purposes, as amended, on which the yeas and nays were ordered.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Oregon (Mr. WALDEN) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, as amended.

This is a 5-minute vote.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 389, nays 2, not voting 42, as follows:

□ 1904

So (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the bill, as amended, was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

The title of the bill was amended so as to read: "A bill to direct the Federal Communications Commission to conduct a study on network resiliency during times of emergency, and for other purposes."

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. AL GREEN of Texas. Mr. Speaker, today I missed the following votes:

1. H.R. 4889, Kelsey Smith Act. Had I been present, I would have voted "yes" on this bill.

2. H.R. 3998, Securing Access to Networks in Disasters Act. Had I been present, I would have voted "yes" on this bill.

KARI'S LAW ACT OF 2016

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The unfinished business is the question on suspending the rules and passing the bill (H.R. 4167) to amend the Communications Act of 1934 to require multi-line telephone systems to have a default configuration that permits users to directly initiate a call to 9-1-1 without dialing any additional digit, code, prefix, or post-fix, and for other purposes, as amended.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Oregon (Mr. WALDEN) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, as amended.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the bill, as amended, was passed.
