

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

REMEMBERING MARY PEARSON

HON. MARK SANFORD

OF SOUTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, April 17, 2017

Mr. SANFORD. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in remembrance of Mary Lee Alcock Pearson, the Dorchester County Treasurer since December 2006. She died March 27 at home in Summerville, South Carolina. Accordingly, I want to take a moment to offer my condolences to a host of family and friends she leaves behind.

It was Ernest Hemingway who said, “Every man’s life ends the same way. It’s only the details of how he lived . . . that distinguish one man from another.”

In that vein, Mary distinguished her life by serving others—her community, in particular. Indeed, she loved Dorchester County, and she was in turn loved back. Mary was loyal almost to a fault and certainly extended me grace in the ups and downs of my life, and for that, I am indebted.

She also cared about conservative ideals and good government. It is for that reason that I appointed her Dorchester County Treasurer back during my time as governor. In short, she was a great friend, a real leader, and a committed participant in the Lowcountry who will be sorely missed.

In her memory, I would ask that we take a moment today for reflection, and pause in asking how we can live up to the legacy of giving and care that Mary embodied. For those of us who knew her, she will be missed. I look forward to our reunion in the heavens above.

Until that meeting, Godspeed.

CONGRATULATING CAROL STREAM

HON. PETER J. ROSKAM

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, April 17, 2017

Mr. ROSKAM. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Carol Stream on being named one of the safest cities in the United States. The Village of Carol Stream was named the eighty-ninth safest city on Neighborhood Scout’s list of America’s 100 Safest Cities.

Working together, law enforcement, local officials, and the community have made Carol Stream a safer place to live, work, and raise a family. The residents of Carol Stream should never underestimate the impact each citizen’s positive actions can have. Everyday there are members of the community helping to change lives, while also inspiring their peers to do the same.

I would be remiss to not also mention the wonderful job of the Carol Stream Police and Fire Departments. Day in and day out the men and women of the Carol Stream Police and Fire Departments risk their lives to protect our community. Their bravery and courage are very deserving of our recognition and admiration, and I am pleased to see their service has led to Carol Stream being named one of the safest cities in America.

Mr. Speaker, please join me in recognizing the Village of Carol Stream, Illinois and congratulating them on being named one of the safest cities in America.

As an additional procedure along with the computerization of this information, the Office of the Senate Daily Digest will prepare this information for printing in the Extensions of Remarks section of the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD on Monday and Wednesday of each week.

Meetings scheduled for Tuesday, April 18, 2017 may be found in the Daily Digest of today’s RECORD.
