

therefore, expect rollcall votes throughout the session tomorrow as the Senate makes further progress on the agriculture appropriations bill. Once that is completed, of course, other issues may be considered, but we could consult with both sides of the aisle before we move to the next bill.

Mr. DASCHLE. Mr. President, if the majority leader will yield on just another question, today the Summers nomination was reported out of the Finance Committee unanimously. There appears to be very strong bipartisan support. Is there any intention on the part of the majority leader to address that nomination sometime in the near future?

Mr. LOTT. The Finance Committee did report it out today. I did vote, along with everybody else, for the nomination. It will be on the calendar tomorrow.

I had indicated I assumed that before we went out for the Fourth of July recess, which is a week from Friday, that would be taken up. It very well could be taken up before then. But we have not gotten it on the calendar, and we have not made a definite determination as to when we will call it up.

I assume other nominations will be on the calendar tomorrow from other committees, and I hope we have the same approach as we have had this year—including three nominations last week—to move these nominations through pretty quickly after reaching the calendar, barring complications that do sometimes come up, of course.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 9:30 A.M.
TOMORROW

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I now ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 6:50 p.m., adjourned until Wednesday, June 23, 1999, at 9:30 a.m.
