

to come forward after we have built capacity in the communities to in fact invite people to become owners of business, to be involved in our economy. This is very essential in fulfilling the promise of what this Nation is about in terms of earning your own way, the sort of rugged individualism. It is fine, but we need to build the types of capacity in terms of the people that we represent and the working families, which may not be like yesterday's working families, but build the capacity so that they can be successful. Our financial institutions, have always been an important part of that. Our banks have. CRA today is one way of ensuring that they can demonstrate and pointing the way, keeping in focus the service to the geographic area and the service areas in which these financial entities derive their deposits and provide their loans and play that essential role that is the magic of our great American economy.
