TRIBUTE TO ROGER BILL
MITCHELL

---

HON. SCOTT McINNIS

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, July 21, 1999

Mr. McINNIS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to take a moment to recognize Mr. Roger Bill Mitchell of Monte Vista, CO. Because of his dedication and years of service for the people of Colorado and the Colorado Farm Bureau, I wish to honor Mr. Mitchell and thank him for his work.

Born and raised in Monte Vista, Mr. Mitchell went to Adams State College in Alamosa, CO, where he received a B.A. in business administration. Currently, Roger Bill Mitchell is the manager of Mitchell Farms, a family partnership that raises potatoes and malting barley. He has served on the boards of various civic and community groups, serving as vice president of the local weed district, secretary of the drainage district, past board member and secretary of the San Luis Valley Administrative Committee and of the Monte Vista Potato Co-operative.

First elected as the president of the Colorado Farm Bureau in 1992, he was re-elected in 1994 and in 1996. He served as president of the Rio Grande County Farm Bureau and was the district 7 director on the State Board of Directors. While a member of the State Board, he served as a State Young Farmer and Rancher chairman, secretary, and vice president.

In 1991, Mr. Roger Mitchell was appointed by former Gov. Roy Romer, to the Colorado Water Quality Control Commission and he served as the only farmer on the commission until 1997. Mr. Mitchell's involvement has been extensive, including work with advisory committees for wetlands, watershed management, and waste treatment plants. His efforts have been honored with the presentation of the Jaycee's State Outstanding Farmer and Coors Barley Outstanding Grower Awards.

As Mr. Mitchell retires from his position on the Colorado Farm Bureau, I would like to thank him for his unprecedented service and outstanding leadership. I am grateful for his involvement and work for the citizens and farmers of Colorado. Mr. Mitchell is a remarkable individual and I wish him the best of luck as he turns the page on a new chapter in life.

TRIBUTE TO NAOMI AND ZACK
PRENDERGAST

HON. SCOTT McINNIS

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, July 21, 1999

Mr. McINNIS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to take a moment to acknowledge Naomi and Zack Prendergast for their dedication to their family and for their recognition as the 1999 Parents of the Year for America. Because of their commitment to family and serving others, they are quite deserving of praise.

Meeting over 22 years ago in a shelter for abandoned children in Italy, Naomi and Zack found a common desire to serve others. They were married and began a life together which has taken them around the world in their personal ministry. The parents of 12 children, they are unique not only because of their large family, but for their dedication to raising their children to serve.

Five years ago, the Prendergast family moved to Longmont, CO. From the broad range of volunteer and service efforts which they have undertaken, an organization known as Family Service, Inc., has emerged. With such a large family, and such dedication to service, helping others has always been a family affair for the Prendergasts. Their family singing group performs at nursing homes, schools, shelters and various other places where inspiration and joy may be given.

The Prendergast family also began an effort to gather donated food for area homeless shelters. Family Services, Inc., with the help and generosity of community members, provides donated food each week to these shelters, donating an average of 8,000 pounds of food per month. Zack has found time to run a project, in addition to the various projects he works on, to promote responsible fatherhood. St. Vrain Fatherhood Connection offers parenting classes for young fathers and a support group located at a local church.

I am grateful for people like the Prendergast family, who not only strive to serve, but teach their children the importance of respect and service as well. For their dedication to helping others, their involvement in bettering the community in which they live, and for sharing their fundamental values and work ethic with their children and the citizens of Longmont, I wish to commend Zack and Naomi and recognize their achievements. They are unique and I greatly appreciate their noble efforts.

HONORING JAMES D. McELHANNON

---

HON. GEORGE RADANOVICH

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, July 22, 1999

Mr. RADANOVICH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor James D. McElhannon as he has been awarded with the nation's Military Order of the Purple Heart Award.

James D. McElhannon is a resident of Lemoore, and a retired Master Sergeant of the Korean War. During his time served in Korea, he was wounded in the battle for the Naktong River on September 10-20, 1950. Sergeant McElhannon was leading his platoon (2nd platoon, Charlie, 3rd combat Engineer Battalion) on a night reconnaissance when enemy forces began firing their weapons. McElhannon was wounded by a mortar attack, receiving shrapnel in his leg. He refused medical attention in order to continue his mission. Though losing blood through the night, Sergeant McElhannon used his own bayonet to remove the shrapnel in his leg. The 2nd Platoon Charlie Company held fast did not withdraw until the platoon was officially relieved.

Mr. Speaker, it is my pleasure to honor James D. McElhannon for his bravery and commitment in the Korean War. His courage has lead him to receive the nation's Military Order of the Purple Heart Award. I urge my colleagues to join me in wishing James McElhannon many more years of success.
