shall make a determination to adopt or reject the arbitration panel’s advisory decision and notify the landowner and the CRGNSA of this determination within 45 days of receipt of the advisory decision.

(j) ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDING.—Notwithstanding the fact that an arbitration pursuant to this Act has occurred nor the recommendation of the arbitration panel shall be admissible in any court or administrative proceeding.

(k) EXPIRATION DATE.—This Act shall expire on October 1, 2002.

SEC. 339. A project undertaken by the Forest Service under the Recreation Fee Demonstration Program as authorized by Section 332 of the Department of the Interior and Related Agencies Appropriations Act for Fiscal Year 1996, as amended, shall not result in

(1) displacement of the holder of an authorization to provide commercial recreation services on Federal lands. Prior to initiating any project, the Secretary shall consult with potentially affected holders to determine what impacts the project may have on the holders. Any modifications to the authorization shall be made within the terms and conditions of the authorization and authorities of the impacted agency.

(2) the return of a commercial recreation service authorized by operation when such services have been provided in the past by a private sector provider, except when

(A) the private sector provider fails to bid on such opportunity;

(B) the private sector provider terminates its relationship with the agency, or

(C) the agency revokes the permit for non-compliance with the terms and conditions of the authorization.

In such cases, the agency may use the Recreation Fee Demonstration Program to provide for operations until a subsequent operator can be found through the offering of a new prospectus.

This Act may be cited as the “Department of the Interior and Related Agencies Appropriations Act, 2000”.
