The Senate met at 9:30 a.m. and was called to order by the President pro tempore [Mr. THURMOND].

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Today's prayer will be offered by our guest Chaplain, Rabbi Solomon Schiff, director of chaplaincy, Greater Miami Jewish Federation, Miami, FL. We are pleased to have you with us.

PRAYER

The guest Chaplain, Rabbi Solomon Schiff, offered the following prayer:

Heavenly Creator, we invoke Thy blessings upon those gathered here, loyal servants in the vineyard of human compassion. Bless, we pray, the Members of this body who have accepted the high privilege and sacred responsibility of serving in the sacred Halls of the U.S. Senate. Unto their hands was entrusted the mantle of leadership on behalf of the American people. May they discharge their responsibilities with courage and commitment. Grant that their deliberations will be free from rancor and bitterness, but that they will be ruled instead by wisdom, purpose, and dedication.

O, divine Healer, bind our Nation together. Sustain the dreams of those who founded our great Republic, that through our sharing with one another the ideals which gave it birth—the ideals of liberty, justice, equality, and freedom—we will preserve and strengthen these ideals for all future time. In this way we will help bring about a society based on moral and ethical values and ensure that the new millennium will mark not only a change in calendar but a change in character as well.

We will then lead the family of nations to an unending era of tranquility, justice, and universal peace. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The Honorable CONRAD BURNS, a Senator from the State of Montana, led the Pledge of Allegiance, as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

GUEST CHAPLAIN RABBI SOLOMON SCHIFF

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. CHAPAJO). The Senator from Florida.

Mr. GRAHAM. Mr. President, I rise to thank our distinguished guest Chaplain, Rabbi Solomon Schiff, a personal friend, who has been a great contributor to the religious and civic life of our community and Nation and who has brought us an inspirational message to commence a long day of Senate deliberation.

RECOGNITION OF THE ACTING MAJORITY LEADER

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The acting majority leader is recognized.

---

The vote of today, Mr. ROBERTS, Mr. President, today, by a previous order, the Senate will begin a series of stacked votes on the Abraham Social Security lockbox amendment, the Baucus motion to recommit, and the Robb amendment regarding effective dates of the provisions in the Taxpayer Refund Act of 1999.

Following the votes, Senator GRAMM of Texas will be recognized to offer a substitute amendment containing across-the-board tax cuts, estate tax relief, and reductions in capital gains taxation. By previous consent, there will be 10 hours of debate time remaining on the bill today. Therefore, it is the intention of the majority leader and other national Senators to continue to make significant progress on the bill and complete action on this legislation no later than tomorrow. I thank my colleagues for their attention.

TAXPAYER REFUND ACT OF 1999—Resumed

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report the bill.

The legislative assistant read as follows:

A bill (S. 1429) to provide for reconciliation pursuant to section 109 of the concurrent resolution on the budget for fiscal year 2000.

PENDING:

Abraham amendment No. 1388, to preserve and protect the surpluses of the social security trust funds by reaffirming the exclusion of receipts and disbursement from the budget, by setting a limit on the debt held by the public, and by amending the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 to provide a process to reduce the limit on the debt held by the public.

Baucus motion to recommit the bill to the Committee on Finance, with instructions to report back with an amendment to reduce the tax breaks in the bill by an amount sufficient to allow one hundred percent of the Social Security surplus in each year to be locked away for Social Security, and one-third of the national Social Security surplus in each year to be locked away for Medicare, and an amendment to protect the Social Security and Medicare surplus reserves.

Robb amendment No. 1401, to delay the effective dates of the provisions of, and amendments made by, the Act until the long-term solvency of Social Security and Medicare programs is ensured.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Nevada.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, the pending amendment is not germane. I raise a point of order that the Abraham amendment violates section 305(b)(2) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Michigan.

Mr. ABRAHAM. Mr. President, pursuant to section 904(c) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, I move to waive the Budget Act for consideration of the Abraham amendment.

Mr. GRAMM. I ask for the yeas and nays.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there a sufficient second?

There appears to be a sufficient second.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. There is 2 minutes of debate.

Who yields time?

Mr. REID. Mr. President, in a letter dated April 21, 1999, on a similar provision, then-Secretary of the Treasury Robert Rubin wrote to Senator Mox-nhan that this “provision could preclude the United States from meeting its obligations to repay maturing debt and to make benefit payments—including Social Security checks—also worsen a future economic downturn.”

The lockbox in this proposal is potentially destabilizing in a manner reminiscent of the constitutional amendment to require a balanced budget.

I remind those who propose rigid 10-year schedules for reducing the publicly held debt that economics does not follow the agricultural cycle. There will be periods when surpluses, both on and off budget, will fall far short of projections. We should not impose a debt reduction schedule, enforced by a declining debt ceiling, even if it can be overridden with 60 votes. To do so will risk default every time the debt ceiling is lowered.

Mr. ABRAHAM. Mr. President, first of all, we have endeavored to and have modified our amendment to try to address some of these concerns. I think we have done so. I believe we have given sufficient flexibility so that there will not be the concerns that were raised in that letter.

This lockbox does not need a lot of debate. Americans have been hearing us talk about it now for almost 3 months. We will continue to try to get a straightforward vote on this. I would note that once again this morning another procedural roadblock has
