LEGISLATIVE SESSION

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the Senate will resume legislative session.

HISTORY OF THE HOUSE AWARENESS AND PRESERVATION ACT

Mrs. HUTCHISON. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent the Rules Committee be discharged from further consideration of H.R. 2303, and the Senate then proceed to its immediate consideration.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered. The clerk will report the bill by title.

The legislative clerk read as follows: A bill (H.R. 2303) to direct the Librarian of Congress to prepare the history of the House of Representatives and for other purposes.

There being no objection, the Senate proceeded to consider the bill.

Mr. DODD. Mr. President, I rise in support of H.R. 2303, the History of the House Awareness and Preservation Act, and wish to take a moment of the Senate to congratulate the author of this legislation, the Honorable JOHN B. LARSON of the First Congressional District of Connecticut.

JOHN has proven himself to be a skilled legislator and an articulate and creative advocate for the people of his district, the State of Connecticut, and indeed the entire Nation. For twelve years JOHN served with distinction in the Connecticut State Senate, serving as President Pro Tempore for eight years. It is altogether fitting that this initiative is JOHN's first legislative accomplishment. As a former high school teacher, JOHN is in a unique position to understand the significance and importance of recording the deliberations and history of the House for the benefit of future generations.

As a newly elected member of the House of Representatives, JOHN arrived in Washington at a time when it appeared that partisanship and acrimony would be the order of the day. True to his reverence for our system of government, and his respect and admiration for the institution he now serves in, JOHN initiated this idea in response to calls for a return to civility in the House of Representatives. It is a testament to his skill and effectiveness that this legislation garnered 313 cosponsors, including both the Speaker of the House, Mr. HASTERT, and the House Minority Leader, Mr. GEPHARDT, and was adopted by the House in just a little over four months from its introduction on June 22 of this year. The United States Senate is deeply indebted to our distinguished colleague, Senator ROBERT C. BYRD, for his considerable efforts to preserve the history of the Senate through his four-volume history. The House of Representatives, and students of government across this Nation, will be indebted to JOHN LARSON for his efforts as well.

I am privileged to count JOHN as a friend and an advisor and I commend him on the enactment of this, his first, legislative initiative. It is an honor for me, as the Ranking Member of the Committee on Rules and Administration, to play a small role in assisting his efforts to preserve the rich history of the House of Representatives for future generations. I urge the adoption of this legislation.

Mrs. HUTCHISON. I ask unanimous consent the bill be read three times, passed, the motion to reconsider be laid on the table, and any statements relating thereto be printed in the RECORD.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The bill (H.R. 2303) was read the third time and passed.
