

other social programs not shown to have the same crime deterrent effect. Congress has said no.

Now the President wants to cut the program entirely, and make further cuts in assistance to state and local law enforcement. Let me summarize these cuts:

$50 million in Byrne grants for state and local law enforcement—Cut.

$523 million in Local Law Enforcement Block Grants—Cut.

$645 million in Truth in Sentencing Grants—Cut.

$85 million for criminal alien incarceration—Cut.

$250 million for juvenile crime and accountability grants—Cut.

$4 million in Violence Against Women Grants—Cut.

$12.5 million in COPS grants targeting domestic violence—Cut.

Even the President's own COPS program—$125 million Cut.

And what does the President want to fund? $200 million for a program to turn prosecutors into social workers, who "focus on the offender, rather than the specific offense," and provide punishments such as recreational programs for criminals up to age 22 who commit violent offenses, including weapons offenses, drug distribution, hate crimes, and civil rights violations.

It appears that Congress will have to say no again, and once again remind President Clinton that our government's first domestic duty is to protect the people from crime and violence. I will have more to say in the coming days about the President's budget and the Judiciary Committee's agenda, but suffice it to say, however, that I find President Clinton's budget for Administration of Justice spending is in need of significant attention.

I intend to see that this budget and administration of justice programs get that attention. As Chairman of the Judiciary Committee, I would like to advise my colleagues that a priority of the Committee this year will be the reauthorization of the Department of Justice. Included in this will be efforts to address expiring authorizations from the 1994 crime law, a number of which have been vital to assisting state and local government in reducing crime. I hope and expect that we will consider, on a bipartisan basis, the important funding and policy questions inherent in this effort, so to ensure that the Department can continue into the next century its important mission of upholding the rule of law.

We will hold a series of hearings, both in the newly established Criminal Justice Oversight Subcommittee and at Full Committee, with the goal being to ensure that the Department of Justice is making the most of the precious law enforcement dollars appropriated and that essential law enforcement priorities are being met for the American people.

Mr. President, I appreciate my colleagues' attention. I look forward to working with them on these important matters. I thank the Chair, and yield the floor.

RECORD CORRECTION

Mr. REID. On rollcall vote No. 8, the Senator from Maryland, Ms. MIKULSKI, was necessarily absent because of illness. In the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD of January 28, her vote was erroneously announced as "aye." Her vote on rollcall vote No. 8 should have been announced as "no." I ask unanimous consent that the RECORD be changed to reflect this correction.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

MESSAGES FROM THE PRESIDENT

Messages from the President of the United States were communicated to the Senate by Mr. Williams, one of his secretaries.

EXECUTIVE MESSAGES REFERRED

As in executive session the Presiding Officer laid before the Senate messages from the President of the United States submitting sundry nominations which were referred to the Committee on Armed Services.

(The nominations received today are printed at the end of the Senate proceedings.)

REPORT CONCERNING THE EMIGRATION LAWS AND POLICIES OF ALBANIA—MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT RECEIVED DURING ADJOURNMENT—PM 2

Under the authority of the order of the Senate of January 6, 1999, the Secretary of the Senate, on February 2, 1999, during the adjournment of the Senate, received the message from the President of the United States, together with an accompanying report; which was referred to the Committee on Finance.

To the Congress of the United States:

I am submitting an updated report to the Congress concerning the emigration laws and policies of Albania. The report indicates continued Albanian compliance with the U.S. and international standards in the area of emigration. In fact, Albania has imposed no emigration restrictions, including exit visa requirements, on its population since 1991.

On December 5, 1997, I determined and reported to the Congress that Albania is not in violation of paragraphs (1), (2), or (3) of subsection 402(a) of the Trade Act of 1974, or paragraphs (1), (2), or (3) of subsection 409(a) of that act. That action allowed for the continuation of normal trade relations status for Albania and certain other activities without the requirement of an annual waiver. This semiannual report is submitted as required by law pursuant to the determination of December 5, 1997.

WILLIAM J. CLINTON.

THE WHITE HOUSE, February 2, 1999.
