A concurrent resolution (S. Con. Res. 42) expressing the sense of the Congress that a commemorative postage stamp should be issued by the United States Postal Service honoring the members of the Armed Forces who have been awarded the Purple Heart.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That it is the sense of the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), Whereas the 4-H Youth Development Program celebrates its 100th anniversary in 2002; whereas the 4-H Youth Development Program has grown to over 5,600,000 annual participants, from 5 to 19 years of age; whereas today’s 4-H Club is very diverse, offering agricultural, career development, information technology, and general life skills program; whereas these programs are offered in rural and urban areas throughout the world; and whereas the 4-H Youth Development Program continues to make great contributions toward the development of well-rounded youth: Now, therefore, be it
