Ms. COLLINS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the amendment be agreed to; the resolution be agreed to, as amended, the motion to reconsider be laid upon the table, and any statements related to the resolution be printed in the RECORD.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The amendment (No. 2793) was agreed to.

The concurrent resolution (H. Con. Res. 221), as amended, was agreed to.

RECOGNIZING THE 4–H YOUTH DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM'S CENTENNIAL

Ms. COLLINS. Mr. President, I now ask unanimous consent that the Governmental Affairs Committee be discharged from further consideration of S. Res. 218, and the Senate proceed to its immediate consideration.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered. The clerk will report the resolution by title.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

A resolution (S. Res. 218) expressing the sense of the Senate that a commemorative postage stamp should be issued recognizing the 4–H Youth Development Program's centennial; and

WHEREAS the 4–H Youth Development Program is unique in that it is the oldest non-governmental youth and adult development organization administered by the United States Department of Agriculture. It is a nationwide organization of participants, from 5 to 19 years of age; and

WHEREAS the 4–H Youth Development Program is the oldest youth and adult development organization administered by a Federal agency in the United States.

Resolved, That it is the sense of the Senate that—

1. The United States Postal Service should make preparations to issue a commemorative postage stamp recognizing the 4–H Youth Development Program's centennial; and
2. The Citizens' Stamp Advisory Committee should recommend to the Postmaster General that such a postage stamp be issued in 2002.

Ms. COLLINS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the concurrent resolution be discharged from further consideration of S. Con. Res. 42, and that the Senate proceed to its immediate consideration.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered. The clerk will report the concurrent resolution by title.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

A concurrent resolution (S. Con. Res. 42) expressing the sense of the Congress that a commemorative postage stamp should be issued by the United States Postal Service honoring the members of the Armed Forces who have been awarded the Purple Heart.

WHEREAS today's 4–H Club is very diverse, offering agricultural, career development, information technology, and general life skills programs; and

WHEREAS these programs are offered in rural and urban areas throughout the world; and

WHEREAS the 4–H Youth Development Program continues to make great contributions toward the development of well-rounded youth.

Resolved, That it is the sense of the Senate that—

1. The United States Postal Service should make preparations to issue a commemorative postage stamp recognizing the 4–H Youth Development Program's centennial; and
2. The Citizens' Stamp Advisory Committee should recommend to the Postmaster General that such a postage stamp be issued in 2002.

Ms. COLLINS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the concurrent resolution be discharged from further consideration of S. Con. Res. 42, and that the Senate proceed to its immediate consideration.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered. The clerk will report the concurrent resolution by title.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

A concurrent resolution (S. Con. Res. 42) expressing the sense of the Congress that a commemorative postage stamp should be issued by the United States Postal Service honoring the members of the Armed Forces who have been awarded the Purple Heart.

WHEREAS the Purple Heart was established by an Act of Congress of June 28, 1862, to be awarded for wounds incurred in the service of the United States.

WHEREAS the Order of the Purple Heart for Military Merit, commonly known as the Purple Heart, is the oldest military decoration in the world in present use;

WHEREAS the United States Post Office established the Purple Heart Post Office in 1951 to honor recipients of the Purple Heart; and

WHEREAS the United States Post Office will establish the Purple Heart Post Office in 1999 to honor recipients of the Purple Heart.

Resolved, That it is the sense of the Senate that—

1. The United States Postal Service should make preparations to issue a commemorative postage stamp recognizing the 4–H Youth Development Program's centennial; and
2. The Citizens' Stamp Advisory Committee should recommend to the Postmaster General that such a postage stamp be issued in 2002.
