Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor my good friend John W. Olsen as he receives the State of Israel Bonds Labor Medal for his lifelong contributions to the labor movement in the State of Connecticut.

Created in 1951, State of Israel Bonds serves as the cornerstone of Israel’s economy. Committed to improving Israel’s infrastructure as a whole, Israel Bonds provides financial support for the construction of research facilities, transportation networks, communications links, and the expansion of port and airport facilities. Its commitment to the betterment of Israel’s people and its economy is unparalleled—helping transform the state of Israel into one of the world’s leading industrial nations.

In many ways, John’s commitment to the labor movement is reflective on Israel Bonds’ commitment to the state of Israel. Since he began his career as a member of the UA Local 133, Plumbers and Pipefitters, John has dedicated his life to working families. He has fought for better wages, more comprehensive health benefits for workers and their families, and safer work environment. As President of the Connecticut AFL–CIO, John has forced the largest corporations in Connecticut to listen to their employees’ and afford them these basic rights. He has been a true leader for our working families, giving them a voice during the hardest of economic times.

John has also worked hard to make Connecticut a better place to live and grow. He has been active in state and national politics, serving on the Democratic State Central Committee and the Democratic National Committee. He also serves on a number of boards and commissions with the purpose of making Connecticut’s workers the most productive in the nation. Over the years, John has become an ambassador for the labor movement, spreading its message of helping and protecting working families through lectures, newspaper columns, and on the radio. We in Connecticut have much to thank John for—his contributions have been truly invaluable.

It is with great pride that I rise to join friends and family in saluting my dear friend, John, as he receives the State of Israel Bonds Labor Medal. Congratulations.
