Mr. FOSSELLA. Mr. Speaker, I am not recorded on rollcall numbers 587, 588, 589, 590, 591, 592, 593, 594, and 595. I was unavoidably detained and therefore could not vote for this legislation. Had I been present, I would have voted “aye” for rollcall numbers 587, 588, 589, 590, 591, 592, 593 and 594. I would have voted “no” for rollcall number 595.

TRIBUTE TO MICHAEL TERRELL

HON. ANNE M. NORTHPUR
OF KENTUCKY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, November 18, 1999

Mrs. NORTHPUR. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate and honor a Kentucky teacher from my district who has achieved national recognition for his exemplary role in educating young students. Michael Terrell of Louisville is one of 29 teachers from across the country selected for USA TODAY’S 1999 ALL-USA Teacher Team. He should be extremely proud to have been both nominated by a colleague and to have received an award conferred on the most impressive teachers in the nation. In light of constant stories about the crisis in our nation’s schools, it is vital that we recognize the dedication and outstanding achievements of our teachers. It is my honor to pay tribute to someone who has made such a difference to so many children.

Michael Terrell has had a distinguished career as a primary teacher for 27 years, including 18 years at Cochran Elementary School where he currently teaches first and second grades. Thanks to Michael Terrell’s devotion and selfless contributions, the Cochran Elementary School is filled with spirit and activism. His hard work and dedication to making schools better and improving the lives of his students, both encourages parents to get involved and sets an example for all teachers to follow. He is one of the people who helps create the vitality of Cochran Elementary School and his enthusiasm creates a can-do attitude. He is responsible for the many successes there which, in turn, positively affect our entire community’s well-being.

Mr. Terrell is a teacher who knows how to get the job done. He knows it takes hard work, it takes flexibility, and it takes a commitment to each child. I was proud to hear that Michael Terrell supports what this Congress is trying to do—give schools and teachers the ability to make the choices which best reflect their students needs. We are all in agreement that such changes will help improve education—for Michael Terrell and his students. Because of all he does, I salute Michael Terrell for working so hard to make our schools a flourishing environment for our children to learn, grow and play.

TRIBUTE TO RONALD L. BOOK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, November 18, 1999

Mrs. MEEK of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise to honor Ronald L. Book, one of Florida’s truly remarkable citizens. Without ever holding elective public office, Ron Book has had a tremendous and positive influence on our state and our community for over 25 years.

Ron’s tireless efforts and knowledge of both government and business has led to hundreds of millions of dollars in private and public investment in Miami-Dade County and throughout the State of Florida, resulting in the creation of thousands of new job opportunities, improving the quality of life for our citizens and greatly enhancing our position as a destination of choice for vacationers and sports enthusiasts from around the nation and the world.

His efforts on behalf of the homeless and dozens of charitable organizations ranging from the Special Olympics to the Epilepsy Foundation to the Humane Society are not well-publicized, but they point out that, when it comes to community service, Ron Book is all business. In the highest traditions of public service, he is most generous with his time and attention in helping people who cannot themselves solve the problems that they face.

I have known Ron Book since he was just a youngster, making a name for himself working on local campaigns. As is the case today, everyone who met him then was impressed with his intelligence, hard work, devotion to principle and leadership capabilities. No one was surprised that Ron served as Vice President of his High School Class, or served in the University of Florida’s Student Senate, or that he started working for a Florida legislator before he even graduated from college.

Because of his interest in government and desire to develop his own considerable capabilities, law school was a natural next step for Ron, as were his service as a Special Assistant to Governor Bob Graham; his employment with the Florida Bar; his employment with the Florida New Media Exchange as a lobbyist for the Florida Bar; and his employment with the Florida Chamber of Commerce as a lobbyist for the Florida Chamber of Commerce.

On December 14, 1999, Ron Book’s achievements will be recognized at a testimonial dinner sponsored by the American Association of Bikur Cholim Hospital, Jerusalem’s first hospital and one of Israel’s preeminent medical care facilities. Mr. Book will be presented Bikur Cholim’s International Brotherhood Award in recognition of this outstanding contributions to both his profession and our community.

Mr. Speaker, I know that my colleagues join with me in congratulating Ronald L. Book on this great honor.

HON. ELIOT L. ENGEL
OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, November 18, 1999

Mr. ENGEL. Mr. Speaker, public service, when performed wisely and well, is the most noble of callings. I speak today to honor a man who has been in public service and who performed in just those ways. Edward Weiss is retiring from the United States Department of Justice, Immigration and Naturalization Service, after 30 years of service.

In his many capacities with the Department, Ed has received outstanding performance ratings from every United States Attorney General under whom he has served since 1981. He is well known for his ability to prepare and litigate cases. He also coordinated the Criminal Alien Program for the New Jersey District.
