

Yeshivah of Flatbush and its honorees on the occasion of its 72nd Anniversary Banquet.

The Yeshivah of Flatbush has long served as a pillar of strength for my constituents by providing our children with the tools they will need to face the challenges of the twenty-first century.

Dr. Mayer Ballas, recipient of the Keter Shem Tov Leadership Award, has dedicated himself to helping members of the community as an advocate and spokesperson for Jewish people in need. He is the founding President of the Council of Rescue of Syrian Jews and has served as a member of the Federation Oversight Committee, the arm of Operation Abraham concerned with the resettlement of the most recent wave of immigrants from Syria. At the Yeshivah of Flatbush, Dr. Ballas sits on the Board of Directors and Board of Education and is a member of the Tuition Assistance Committee. He participates in all school functions and generously gives of himself and his time to the Yeshivah.

Hon. Steven Cohn, recipient of the Keter Shem Tov Community Service Award, is staunchly committed to both the Yeshivah and his community. For the past sixteen years, Mr. Cohn has served as the Democratic State Committeeman for the 50th Assembly District. He is the Vice-Chair of the New York State Democratic Party, Secretary of the Democratic Party of Kings County and has served as Parliamentarian to the Democratic National Convention. Working side by side with community leaders, elected officials and neighborhood residents to protect the environment, improve homeless shelters and maintain quality medical care in his district. His affiliation with the Yeshivah of Flatbush parallels his children's education and has strengthened over the years. In addition to working on the Banquet Journal, Chinese Auction and Building Committees, Steve is currently an Associate Treasurer on the Executive Board of Officers and sits on the school's Board of Trustees and Board of Education.

Dr. Cheryl Fishbein, recipient of the Alumna of the Year Award, is an alumna of both the Elementary School and the Joel Braverman High School. Throughout her adult life, Cheryl has focused her efforts on serving the community. She is President of the Jewish Community House in Bensonhurst and is currently overseeing its capital building campaign. She serves as the Metro Chair of the Institutional Trustees Campaign for UJA and sits on the organization's Planning and Allocations Committee. Additionally, Dr. Fishbein devotes much of her time to the Board of Jewish Education and serves as a Vice President of its Board of Directors. She also sits on the Boards of Gesher and the National Board of the Jewish Community Center Association.

Each of today's honorees have long been known as innovators and beacons of good will to all those they come into contact with. In recognition of their many accomplishments on behalf of my constituents. I offer many congratulations on their being honored by the Yeshivah of Flatbush.

SALUTE TO A. LEON HIGGINBOTHAM

SPEECH OF

HON. EDDIE BERNICE JOHNSON

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 3, 1999

Ms. EDDIE BERNICE JOHNSON of Texas. Mr. Speaker, as I witness attacks on affirmative action in education and a legal system that overlooks police brutality among African-Americans, I realize that our country is experiencing a huge gap in fairness and equality under the law with the passing of Judge A. Leon Higginbotham, Jr.

Mr. Speaker, Judge Higginbotham spent his life vigorously protecting and championing the causes of equality and opportunity for African-Americans.

The French philosopher Montesquieu once said that "In the state of nature, indeed, all men are born equal, but they cannot continue in this equality. Society makes them lose it, and they recover it only by the protection of the laws."

In confronting racial injustice, violence and inequality through the legal system, Judge Higginbotham recovered and secured equality for countless African-Americans. His life long commitment to eliminating discrimination forced our society to recognize the equality inherent in all men and women, despite their race or ethnicity.

In his capacity as special deputy attorney general of Pennsylvania, judge of the U.S. District Court for the eastern district of Pennsylvania and judge of the U.S. Third-Circuit Court of Appeals, many men and women regained their rights taken away from them by society.

His zeal in tearing down the walls of injustice and erecting the walls of opportunity began after he earned his law degree at Yale Law School by working in Philadelphia as an assistant district attorney. Six years later after becoming a special deputy attorney general for Pennsylvania, President John F. Kennedy named him to the Federal Trade Commission (FTC). This appointment was notable in the fact that it made him the FTC's first black commissioner and its youngest as well.

In 1977, after serving as a district court judge in Philadelphia from 1964 to 1977, President Jimmy Carter appointed him judge of the U.S. Third-Circuit Court of Appeals where he served with distinction as judge, chief judge and senior judge until his retirement in March 1993.

Throughout the years, U.S. Chief Justice Warren, Burger and Rehnquist appointed Judge Higginbotham to various judicial conferences. In addition, the Congressional Black Caucus benefitted from his excellent legal mind in a series of voting rights cases brought before the U.S. Supreme Court.

Current South African President Nelson Mandela also called upon his knowledge and wisdom during the country's historic 1994 national elections where Judge Higginbotham served as an international mediator.

Mr. Speaker, the aforementioned feats and accomplishments mark this important fact: when he was called upon by presidents, world leaders, Members of Congress and citizens to defend civil rights, Judge Higginbotham answered with vigor and passion.

Millions of Americans saw him protect the tenets of the Constitution during the recent House Judiciary Committee impeachment hearings. This was just two weeks before his passing on December 14, 1998.

Like so many times during his stellar legal career, he was a steadfast advocate and defender of the true meanings and intents of the law and our Constitution. During the hearings, it was not partisan winds that steered his testimony that the President should not be impeached. Rather, it was scholarly and intellectual interpretation of the Constitution and the separation of powers between the Judicial, Executive and Legislative branches of our government.

For those viewers of the hearings, that was their first contact with the great judge. However, I have constantly been a witness to—and a beneficiary of—Judge Higginbotham's passionate and eloquent defense of justice.

On behalf of the constituents of the 30th congressional district of Texas, I would like to tell his family what a great equalizer in this society he was to us. He served an extended family of poor, powerless and downtrodden individuals in this society. His advocacy for their causes meant a great deal to them and strengthened our principles as a country.

In particular he leaves his wife, Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham; two daughters, Karen and Nia; and two sons, Stephen and Kenneth. I would like to thank them for allowing the country to share and benefit from his mind, heart and soul.

STATEMENT ON THE SUPPRESSION OF RIGHTS IN SERBIA

HON. CHRISTOPHER H. SMITH

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 11, 1999

Mr. SMITH of New Jersey. Mr. Speaker, as we have debated today the issue of American participation in any NATO peacekeeping effort in Kosovo, I urge my colleagues, regardless of their views on that matter, to focus on what is happening in Serbia itself. Slobodan Milosevic, President of an unrecognized Yugoslav state of which Serbia and Montenegro are part, is using Kosovo to perpetuate his regime, to rally Serbia's public opinion around him, and to label as "traitors" not only his opponents but anyone who thinks independently.

Last year, Milosevic imposed draconian laws which curtailed the independence of journalists to report news freely, and threatened the academic community's ability to maintain its intellectual integrity. In response, the Helsinki Commission which I chair, held a hearing appropriately entitled: "The Milosevic Regime Versus Serbian Democracy and Balkan Stability."

As an example of what is happening right now in Serbia, I would note for the RECORD what has happened to three of the witnesses at the hearing.

On December 28, 1998—less than three weeks after the hearing—Boris Karajcic, a
