TRIBUTE TO THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE'S HOCKEY TEAM

● Mr. SMITH of New Hampshire. Mr. President, I rise today to pay tribute to the University of New Hampshire's hockey team, the Wildcats, on their outstanding season. Their stellar performance was a great accomplishment.

The University of New Hampshire hockey team had the best record in NCAA hockey this season. They were ranked number one in the nation in college hockey. Senior Captain Jason Krog was the winner of the Hobey Baker Award, the most prestigious award in college hockey. In short, they had a tremendous season.

The Wildcats competed in the NCAA final four tournament (the Frozen Four) in Anaheim, California. The team went into the final round of the tournament as the favorite. They beat Michigan on April 1 by a score of five to three. They advanced to the finals to face the University of Maine. The game between the University of Maine and the University of New Hampshire was extremely exciting. The game went into sudden death over time before the University of Maine ultimately prevailed. Although they were not successful, the team showed true sportsmanship and team spirit in the wake of an amazing season.

Once again, I would like to pay tribute to the University of New Hampshire Wildcats hockey team, as well as their coach, Dick Umile. I wish them luck in the future and their following seasons. It is an honor to represent them in the United States Senate.●

TRIBUTE TO ARLENE MAGOON

● Mr. SMITH of New Hampshire. Mr. President, I rise today to pay tribute to Arlene Magoon for being named 1999 "New Hampshire Women in Business Advocate of the Year" by the U.S. Small Business Administration. This award is a great accreditation to her work.

She founded her organization to provide family child care after she had difficulty finding childcare for her own three young children. Arlene founded her business in 1990. She personally met with 300 New

Over 65 percent of the childcare providers she has assisted in the past decade are still in business. Many of her business colleagues have commended her dedication and professionalism of her work.

Her service to the children of New Hampshire is a gift. I wish to thank her for her efforts and wish the best of luck in her future endeavors. It is an honor to represent her in the United States Senate.●
