

level; others will be solutions that can happen through our churches, our non-profit organizations, our communities, and in every home in America.

I suggest now is not the time to rush into action, even though that is a natural tendency, but now is a time to listen. If we can spend millions of dollars and thousands of manhours to find out why airplanes explode, why can't we match that effort to find out why some children explode?

I look forward to working with the Members of this body to find the proper solutions to this critical challenge before our Nation.
