

A TRIBUTE TO DON KINGSTON

HON. DAVID D. PHELPS

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 12, 1999

Mr. PHELPS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Don Kingston, who is retiring this year from Eldorado High School in Eldorado, Illinois. Donald J. Kingston was born on October 28, 1931, one of eight children. His father passed away when he was just four years old leaving his mother with eight children during the Depression. Don felt strongly that President Franklin Delano Roosevelt's New Deal Programs were instrumental in pulling his family through the hard times. He also believes that the sports programs in his local high school were the only reason he completed high school, a very revealing fact when you look at how dedicated he has been to EHS sports over the last forty years.

Back in the fall of 1956, while in his last year of law school, EHS head football coach Coach Adams, asked Don to be assistant coach for the EHS football team. Instead of going on to practice law, Don accepted the assistant coaching job. A year later when Coach Adams retired, Don became the head coach of the football team. Don Kingston has given the last forty-two years of his life to being both an outstanding educator and coach at Eldorado High School. Mr. Kingston has taught many subjects at Eldorado High School, including physical education, driver's education, English and geography. Mr. Kingston has also coached the football, basketball and track teams. The best teams he has ever coached, according to Don, were the 1968 Eagles Football Team and the 1976 Eagles Basketball Team, of which his son Kevin was a member.

Mr. Speaker, what is most special about my opportunity now to congratulate Don and his wife Wanda, is the fact that I have known them all of my life and truly appreciate their commitment to public service. They raised two wonderful children; Kevin and Valerie, who have served as role models to the community, and I know that if Kevin were still with us today he would be proud to see his father reach this stage in his life. Don has been my teacher, my fellow elected official, my supporter, professional colleague, but most importantly, my friend! Don, we wish you God's speed and congratulations on a fabulous career in shaping the lives of our young people.

FREMONT'S IRVINGTON HIGH SCHOOL NAMED 1999 DISTINGUISHED SCHOOL BY THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

HON. FORTNEY PETE STARK

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 12, 1999

Mr. STARK. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Fremont's Irvington High School. The California Department of Education has named Irvington as a 1999 Distinguished School—the most prestigious award they bestow.

Consideration for this award does not come lightly. The California Department of Education uses a rigorous aggressive application model, which requires schools to be exemplary in their field. Irvington is a magnet school for the visual and performing arts, and currently 1,800 students are in attendance.

Irvington High School should also be very proud of its cutting edge requirement that students complete 40 hours of service learning, or community service, in order to graduate. Programs such as these are what make Irvington stand out from the rest.

I commend the faculty and students of Irvington High School for their dedication to excellence, and I congratulate them.

IN MEMORY OF JONATHAN PATRICK BIGONY II

HON. CARRIE P. MEEK

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 12, 1999

Mrs. MEEK of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in happy memory of the late Jonathan Patrick Bigony II, on the third anniversary of his birth, which occurred on June 8, 1996. Blue-eyed with black, curly hair and a radiant smile, Jonathan was known as "J.P." to his friends, yet to his four devoted uncles in the DiGregory Family, he was affectionately nicknamed "Tater." He loved to laugh at the kitchen table with his Uncle Billy, to watch his Uncle Jimmy working in the garden, to play with his Uncle Johnny, and to watch his Uncle Dominic prepare detailed meals as a chef. Among J.P.'s first words were the names of his uncles.

As high spirited and good-natured as he was handsome, J.P. was a delight to those who met him. Whenever carrying him on their shoulders, his friends and family were prepared for J.P. to flip over backwards in laughter. He was the loving son of Jonathan and Marysanta Bigony of Bowie, Maryland, and was the younger brother of J.R. Bigony. J.R. and J.P. dearly loved each other, and the two boys enjoyed laughing together, day and night. Jonathan's loving Godparents were his friend, Patty Lowe, and his Uncle Dominic.

Nothing fascinated J.P. more than when he looked up on a roof one beautiful morning in May, 1997, and saw his uncles doing carpentry together with his friend, Raymond Lowe. From the high rafters, his beloved Uncle Johnny waved to him and his much-loved Uncle Jimmy called out an enthusiastic, "Tater!" And Jonathan, only 11 months old, fearlessly tried to climb the ladder to be with them. He knew what it meant to be loved.

Jonathan enjoyed many of his adventures in the company of his totally dedicated grandmother, Mrs. Dorothy McNamara DiGregory, whom he adored and who cleverly fashioned a safety-seat for him on her golf cart, so that he could accompany her during her strenuous work hours around the expansive family property. J.P. loved the outdoors, and he enjoyed helping her to do carpentry, to feed the horses and dog, to work in the garden, to landscape the lawns, and to trim branches along the creek.

Jonathan also enjoyed playing games with his loving grandmother, Mrs. Gertrude Bigony, of York, Pennsylvania, and with his cousins, Leigha and Danielle DiGregory. One of his earliest sentences was, "Hi, Leigha! How ya doing?"

In honor of the anniversary of Jonathan's birthday, it is a privilege to pay tribute to a wonderful child who brought so much joy. Today, the memories endure of a smiling J.P., enjoying cookies with his grandmother, snuggling on his devoted mother's shoulder, and beaming down happily from his Uncle Johnny's strong arms.

EMERGENCY AMBULANCE SERVICES ACCESS ASSURANCE ACT OF 1999

HON. FRED UPTON

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 12, 1999

Mr. UPTON. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to join my colleagues, Representative ED TOWNS and Representative JO ANN EMERSON, in introducing H.R. 1777, the Emergency Ambulance Services Assurance Act of 1999. This legislation will ensure that health care plans reimburse for emergency ambulance services when individuals had every reason to believe that they were experiencing an extremely serious condition requiring immediate emergency care.

Some may ask why we are introducing this legislation when all of the major managed care reform bills that have been introduced in Congress already include emergency care provisions. But the fact is, these bills cover only what happens when the patient enters the emergency room. None of the bills ensures coverage for emergency ambulance services. It is our hope to use this separate bill to highlight this omission and to build support for including emergency ambulance services coverage in more comprehensive managed care reform proposals that may be moving through the legislative process.

This legislation would ensure that individuals suffering what they had every reason to assume to be a potentially life-threatening condition requiring immediate medical attention or their family or caretakers don't have to phone their insurance plan before they call for an ambulance and don't have to worry about paying for the ambulance services should the condition later prove to be not as serious as the patient thought.

HON. AMO HOUGHTON

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Mr. HOUGHTON. Mr. Speaker, Congress can take great pride in changes we have made in tax law in recent years for small businesses, families and middle income Americans. Unfortunately, we cannot claim to have
