CONGRESSIONAL RECORD—SENATE 11017

NATIONAL DRUG COURT WEEK

Mr. CAMPBELL. Mr. President, as I did around this time last year, I want to remind Drug Court colleagues, which I am sorry to say are particularly effective in meeting continuing through a federal Review Panel beginning at the state level and continuing through a federal Review Panel of top educators, 268 of the very best teachers from the nation's Blue Ribbon Schools. This is the second time Tiogue has earned this honor.

Tribute to Tiogue School: 1999 U.S. Department of Education Blue Ribbon School

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I rise today to recognize the achievement of Tiogue School, Rhode Island, which was recently honored as a U.S. Department of Education Blue Ribbon School. This is the second time in 3 years that a school from Coventry has earned this honor.

It is a highly regarded distinction to be named a Blue Ribbon School. Through an intensive selection process beginning at the state level and continuing through a federal Review Panel of 100 top educators, 268 of the very best teachers from the nation's Blue Ribbon Schools were identified as deserving of this special recognition. These schools are particularly effective in meeting local, state, and national goals. However, this honor signifies not just who is best, but what works in educating today's children.

Mr. GRAMS. Mr. President, I rise today to pay tribute to the national Federated Boys Clubs, known today as the Boys and Girls Club of America.

The Boys Clubs were not organized nationally until 1906, origins of the club can be traced as far back as the mid-1800s. As early as 1853, a Club–like facility was established in New...
