HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES—Wednesday, May 26, 1999

The House met at 10 a.m. and was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. Sununu).

DESIGNATION OF THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following communication from the Speaker:

WASHINGTON, DC. May 26, 1999.

I hereby appoint the Honorable John E. Sununu to act as Speaker pro tempore on this day. J. Dennis Hastert, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend James David Ford, D.D., offered the following prayer:

We learn from the book of Psalms that we should make a joyful noise to You, O God, and that we should break forth into joyous song and sing praises. With all of the suffering and pain in the world, let us begin our day by giving thanks to You, gracious God, for Your goodness and Your love to us and to all people. You lead us when we are lost; You comfort us when we are weak; You forgive us when we have missed the mark, and You show us the path of good will and peace. With gratefulness and praise we laud Your goodness and Your love to us and to the children who do not understand the danger of putting things in their mouth have to be protected. But yet, guns, Mr. Speaker, are allowed to be in the hands of our children. There are no safety locks and, in fact, we do not understand that we must be serious about protecting our children, Mr. Speaker.

I am, of course, referring to the Select Committee's report that was released yesterday, a report that details acts of espionage compromising our most precious military secrets. These acts of espionage were not understood the day I was briefed and they disgust me today. What is the difference between a Bond movie and the Select Committee's report? In the Bond movie, the Department of Justice would have allowed wiretaps. In a Bond movie, we would have gotten the bad guy. All the American people have gotten out of this process are questions. Why did the investigators of the Department of Justice limit the investigation? Why did the Department of Justice drag their feet? Why was not the President told and, if he was, why did he not do anything? Why, why, why?

Americans deserve answers, not questions. Americans deserve answers to the questions: To the American people, Mr. Speaker, I rise today to tell a story, an entertaining story of spies and secrets. Some may even think it sounds like a fictional tale. And yet, the President of the United States told us that he was informed about the leak of information and did nothing. My constituents, and I am sure your constituents, Mr. Speaker, demand answers. What is the difference between a Bond movie and the Select Committee's report? In the Bond movie, the Department of Justice would have allowed wiretaps. In a Bond movie, we would have gotten the bad guy. All the American people have gotten out of this process are questions. Why did the Department of Justice limit the investigation? Why did the Department of Justice drag their feet? Why was not the President told and, if he was, why did he not do anything? Why, why, why?

The American people, Mr. Speaker, deserve answers, not questions.

CONSUMER SAFETY WITH GUNS

Ms. Jackson-Lee of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.

Ms. JACKSON-LEE. Mr. Speaker, people in the White House talk an awful lot about “the children.” Well, today, our children are a lot less safe and a lot less secure because our entire nuclear arsenal has been compromised.

Communist China acquired our most sophisticated technology, some by theft but even more right through the front door. This administration has sold the Chinese communists high-speed supercomputers, sophisticated satellite launch technology, state-of-the-art machine tools and ultra sophisticated nuclear energy design technology. Communist China now sells our technology to Iran and other rogue nations, but we do nothing. The White House covers it up and even denies China has done it.

We are discovering now that in 1995 communist China had stolen the crown jewel of our nuclear arsenal and yet this administration did nothing about it. If the President is to be believed, no one ever informed the Commander in Chief.

Mr. Speaker, is it not interesting that this little toy with its plastic eyes is regulated by the Consumer Product Safety Commission, and yes, this little fellow is likewise regulated, because we know children who do not understand the danger of putting things in their mouth have to be protected. But yet, guns, Mr. Speaker, are allowed to be in the hands of our children. There are no safety locks and, in fact, we do not understand that we must be serious about protecting our children, Mr. Speaker.

Pass the Gun Law Safety Act this week.

U.S. NUCLEAR ARSENAL COMPROMISED

Mr. SCHAFER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.

Mr. SCHAFER. Mr. Speaker, people in the White House talk an awful lot about “the children.” Well, today, our children are a lot less safe and a lot less secure because our entire nuclear arsenal has been compromised.

Announcement by the Speaker

The Speaker pro tempore. The Chair will entertain 15 one-minute speeches on each side.
