CONGRESSIONAL RECORD—HOUSE

May 27, 1999

Mr. REYNOLDS. Mr. Speaker, we are very glad this morning to have Father Putka as our guest chaplain.

President Andrew Jackson is famous for saying, and I will quote, “One man with courage makes a majority.” That description I think is particularly suited to Father Putka.

As a priest of the Society of Mary, and as a professor at the University of Dayton, Father Putka has had a dramatic and positive impact on the lives of tens of thousands of students over the years. I know of few professors who take such a personal interest in the academic and spiritual growth of their students.

Before going to the University of Dayton in 1989, though, Father Putka taught at my alma mater and the alma mater of my colleague, the gentleman from Colorado (Mr. SCHAFFER), Moeller High School in Cincinnati.

Although I was gone, Father Putka did teach most of my eight younger brothers, and the gentleman from Colorado (Mr. SCHAFFER) as well.

He is truly one of a kind, and not just because there are not many Marianist priests out there sporting a flat top haircut. He is a dear friend to many, and through his service to his church, his community, and his country, I think he is a unique leader for all of us.

I might also add that Father Putka is currently a professor for the student, the daughter of our colleague, the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. RAY LAHOOD), who is in the Chair.

We are glad that Father Putka is with us, and hope that he will return soon.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. BOEHNER). Other 1-minute will be taken up at the end of the day.

Welcome to Father John Putka

(Mr. BOEHNER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)
