

the Army during World War II and saw combat in the European Theater, earning the combat infantrymen badge and the Bronze Star for valor. He immediately returned to the plant at the end of the war and dedicated himself to government service for the next five decades. Mr. Pollard served in many capacities at the plant, always determined to ensure that Soldiers, Sailors, Airmen and Marines were supplied with the highest quality ammunition and that Americans were receiving every penny's worth of their defense dollar.

At 81 years old, Mr. Pollard could have retired many years ago. Instead, he remained in federal service because he loved his work and was committed to Lake City, the Ordnance Corps, and the U.S. Army.

Mr. Speaker, Dale Pollard has been an inspiration to all who had the pleasure of working with him at Lake City. I know all Members of Congress will join me in paying tribute to the outstanding public service of my good friend.

Mr. SERRANO. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Mrs. Norma Rivera, an outstanding individual who has dedicated 48 years of her life to community service, and to wish her a happy retirement.

HONORING ETHEL McALPINE JAMESON

HON. SCOTT McINNIS

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, January 31, 2000

Mr. McINNIS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to take a moment to pause and remember a woman that many knew and loved, Mrs. Ethel McAlpine Jameson.

Mrs. Jameson was a long-time Republican Party activist and a very politically involved person. Mrs. Jameson was co-chair of the election campaigns for a former United States Representative and Senator. She served on the board of the Tri-County Mental Health Association in the Denver area and was also active in musical circles and the Episcopal Church.

Mrs. Jameson is survived by her son, seven grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

It is with this, Mr. Speaker, that I wish to remember Mrs. Jameson for being a great activist and caring wife, mother and grandmother. She was a great American whose service and friendship will be greatly missed.

HONORING CHAIRMAN TOM BLILEY

HON. HOWARD COBLE

OF NORTH CAROLINA

Monday, January 31, 2000

Mr. COBLE. Mr. Speaker, in just a few days—February 8, to be exact—we will acknowledge the fourth anniversary of the signing of the historic Telecommunications Act of 1996. And so, it is fitting that we acknowledge one of the act's key sponsors, my good friend, the gentleman from Richmond, Chairman TOM BLILEY.

As part of the act's anniversary activities, the Competitive Telecommunications Association, more easily referred to as CompTel, is honoring Chairman BLILEY as one of the two "Champions of Competition," the other being Senator FRITZ HOLLINGS from the State of North Carolina. Both will be duly recognized, and rightly so, for their outstanding leadership and bipartisan spirit throughout the nearly decade-long debate in the Congress to update the 1934 act.

Mr. Speaker, the Telecom Act provides for a procompetitive, deregulatory national policy framework designed to accelerate rapid private sector deployment of advanced telecommunications and information technologies and services to all Americans by opening all telecommunications markets to competition.

Well, Mr. Speaker, I can assure you that the results are in following 4 years after enactment of this historic piece of legislation. Thanks to Chairman BLILEY's persistence in crafting proper safeguards to ensure open competition to all players, we see today the fruits of his labor.

Finally, Mr. Speaker, in addition to commending Mr. BLILEY for his role in bringing competition to the local market, I would note that his good work on this historic bill has brought hundreds of new companies competing in today's marketplace offering better products and services than have ever been developed and deployed in our lifetime. With that said, it's important to note that not only are consumers better served with many choices, but served at lower prices. Mr. BLILEY and the act intended this to happen. Mr. Speaker, I raise my hat to Chairman TOM BLILEY and congratulate him on being named the Champion of Competition.

IN HONOR OF HAZEL WOLF

HON. JAY INSLEE

OF WASHINGTON

Monday, January 31, 2000

Mr. INSLEE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the life of an exceptional environmental and social activist who recently passed, Ms. Hazel Wolf. Ms. Wolf, originally from Victoria, British Columbia, spent most of her life in Seattle, and her final years in Port Angeles. One daughter, five grandchildren, five great-grandchildren, and four great-great grandchildren survive her.

Ms. Wolf's commitment to the environment was strong throughout her 101 years. As an active member of the Audubon Society for 38 years, she helped to establish Audubon chapters within Washington State, recruit new members, and fought tirelessly to protect our natural resources. The Hazel Wolf Wetlands on Sammamish Plateau was named in her behalf. She was also the recipient of a number of other conservation awards, including the Audubon Medal for Excellence in Environmental Achievement in 1977, the Washington State Department of Game's Award for services in protection of wildlife in 1978, and the State of Washington Environmental Excellence Award in 1978, and the Seattle's Spirit of America Award in 1999. Many in my community cheered heartily when, on her 98th birthday, Washington State Governor Mike Lowry declared March 10th as "Hazel Wolf Day." She understood clearly that if we do not act now to safeguard our precious resources, we will be responsible for the destruction of irreplaceable wilderness areas and wildlife communities.

She was also committed to the idea of women's suffrage, social justice, and civil rights, and never hesitated to practice what she preached. Many years ago, during the era in which many public places were segregated, Ms. Wolf asked to swim specifically when the YWCA pool was set aside for African-American women. Her swim spoke volumes about her beliefs.

Mr. Speaker, the recent death of Hazel Wolf has made me realize, once again, what an awesome responsibility we have as Members of Congress. Ms. Wolf's fight to protect the rights of the working poor, religious and ethnic minorities, and our natural resources is a fight that I am proud to carry forth as a United States Congressman. I know the thoughts and prayers of many of us in the Seattle area go out to Ms. Wolf's entire family. Her life was a shining example of devotion, in so many ways, to a better world for all of us.
