

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

IN REMEMBRANCE OF THE VICTIMS OF THE KATYN FOREST MASSACRE

HON. ROBERT MENENDEZ

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, September 18, 2000

Mr. MENENDEZ. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the victims of the Katyn Forest Massacre, sixty-one years after the horrible tragedy.

On September 17, 1939, Poland was invaded by Soviet-Russian troops. At the time, Poland was boldly and courageously fighting an invasion by Nazi Germany. Because Polish troops were over extended fighting the Germans, they were unable to stop the communist troops. In an area called the Katyn Forest, Soviet troops proceeded to murder Polish soldiers from all branches of the military, as well as justice and administrative officials. An estimated 21,000 died. This horrible tragedy is known as the Katyn Forest Massacre.

On September 16, 2000, at 12:00 PM, the Polish American Congress, the Katyn Forest Massacre Memorial Committee, and the Siberian Society of Florida will sponsor a memorial service in Jersey City, New Jersey, in honor of the victims.

Today, I honor the victims of the Katyn Forest Massacre. I commend them for their courage and sacrifice. They fought against terrible aggression; and they not only fought for their own freedom, but for the world's freedom, as well—freedom that many of us enjoy today.

I ask that my colleagues join me in remembering the victims of the Katyn Forest Massacre. And I ask that we also honor their sacrifice for freedom.

IN RECOGNITION OF THE MINGO JOB CORPS FIRE FIGHTING TEAMS

HON. JO ANN EMERSON

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, September 18, 2000

Mrs. EMERSON. Mr. Speaker, today I commend the courageous actions of a group of my constituents over the August recess. The Mingo Job Corps Center of Puxico, Missouri sent four crews out West to help fight the forest fires during what has turned out to be one of our nation's worst fire seasons ever.

These brave men and women went through intense training, and jumped in with both feet to help put out fires that have engulfed much of the Rocky Mountains. They spent time in Colorado, Wyoming and Utah. The Mingo crews, who are between the ages of 18 and 24, never knew the people whose homes and livelihoods they were protecting, yet they spent several weeks risking their lives on their behalf. A few of these folks even went back a second time when they had the opportunity. I commend the following people for their bravery:

Bob Waldner, Nicholas Copeland, Wendell Clinton, Grant Potts, Ronnie Coates, Brad Cason, Dewayne Bell, Todd Simpson, Joe King, Chris Kerr, Terrance Cooper, John Thomas, Amber DeWalt, Justin Armstrong, Brian Foster, Kendall Monroe, Chris Elam, William Arnold, Bryan Meyer, Chad Curtis, Craig Tash, Tom Galvin.

Thank you for your courageous and selfless acts. I salute you.

TRIBUTE TO DR. ROBERT DREWES

HON. ANNA G. ESHOO

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, September 18, 2000

Ms. ESHOO. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor a distinguished American and proud Californian, Dr. Robert Drewes, in recognition of his extraordinary courage in saving the life of Abby Csaplar.

In April, 2000, Dr. Robert Drewes was leading a 24 member California Academy of Sciences trip to Africa. One stop on the trip was the 360-foot high Victoria Falls where the accident occurred. Abby Csaplar was attempting to take a photograph of the Falls when she slipped on a rock and fell over the edge. She grabbed onto a bush, which prevented her immediate death and stopped her fall.

Dr. Robert Drewes instantly dropped his pack and climbed down the side of the cliff in order to assist Abby Csaplar. Once he reached her, he supported her weight and helped her sit on a small six-inch ledge until help arrived. Victoria Falls park rangers brought a rope that was first secured to Abby Csaplar and then Dr. Robert Drewes, pulling them to safety. Dr. Robert Drewes acted selflessly and with great courage, reacting in a moment with extreme courage and saving the life of another individual.

It is fitting that Dr. Drewes is being honored for this extraordinary act of bravery, and I ask my colleagues, Mr. Speaker, to join me in honoring this great and good man. We are indeed a better country, a better Country and a better people because of him.

BLUE RIBBON SCHOOL WINNER

HON. RANDY "DUKE" CUNNINGHAM

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, September 18, 2000

Mr. CUNNINGHAM. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Mira Mesa High School in Mira Mesa and its leaders, Principal, Rachel Flanagan and Superintendent, Alan Bersin. Mira Mesa has been designated by the U.S. Department of Education as a National Blue Ribbon School for 2000. I am proud to inform my colleagues that my district had an amazing record of eleven schools selected for that prestigious honor this year. I would also like to note that the Academy of Our Lady of Peace right outside my district in San Diego County was also named a Blue Ribbon School. I applaud the educators, students and communities in each of the San Diego County schools who pulled together in pursuit of educational excellence.

Blue Ribbon Schools are recognized as some of the nation's most successful institutions, and they are exemplary models for achieving educational excellence throughout the nation. Not only have they demonstrated excellence in academic leadership, teaching and teacher development, and school curriculum, but they have demonstrated exceptional levels of community and parental involvement, high student achievement levels and strong safety and discipline.

After schools are nominated by state education agencies for the Blue Ribbon award, they undergo a rigorous review of their programs, plans and activities. That is followed with visits by educational experts for evaluation. Ultimately, those schools which best demonstrate strong leadership, clear vision and mission, excellent teaching and curriculum, policies and practices that keep the schools safe for learning, family involvement and evidence of high standards are selected for this prestigious award. I am pleased that they are now receiving the national recognition they are due.

As school and community leaders head to Washington for the Department of Education awards ceremony, I want to thank them once again for a job well done. More satisfying than any award, these leaders will have the lifelong satisfaction of having provided the best education possible and a better future for thousands of children. I am proud of what they have achieved, and want to share their achievements so that more people benefit from their accomplishments. I ask that a summary of Mira Mesa High School's superior work be included in the RECORD:

A TRIBUTE TO PRIVATE FIRST CLASS RICHARD WILSON OF CAPE GIRARDEAU, MISSOURI

HON. JO ANN EMERSON

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, September 18, 2000

Mrs. EMERSON. Mr. Speaker, PFC Wilson's biography reminds us who fights our nation's wars. They are men and women, from all walks of life, who answer the call to service and, in too many cases, make the ultimate sacrifice.

Richard Wilson grew up in Cape Girardeau, Missouri, in a family of seven children. He was a good student, a Boy Scout, a football talent, and a Golden Gloves boxer. He took an interest in military service and sought to enlist as soon as he could. On August 19, 1948, on his seventeenth birthday, he enlisted in the Army. Shortly thereafter, he reported to Fort Sam Houston for medical training. He subsequently volunteered for airborne school and reported to Fort Benning, Georgia for training. He was then assigned to Fort Campbell, Kentucky in a medical company of the 11th Airborne Division.

In June of 1950, war broke out in Korea. By late July, Wilson's unit was on alert to deploy to Korea. A final weekend at home on the Fourth of July was his family's last time with him. However, Richard Wilson wanted to marry his sweetheart before he shipped out for the Pacific. So, on August 28, 1950, three days before his departure, PFC Wilson married his sweetheart, Bonnie. He pulled duty during the day and shared a guest cottage at night until his unit shipped out. Bonnie was present to bid him farewell as his train pulled out.

Shortly after the Allied landings at Inchon and the liberation of Seoul, Wilson's unit arrived in Korea. His regiment participated in one of the largest airdrops in history on October 20, 1950.

The 187th regimental combat team, of which he was a part, dropped behind enemy lines, 30 miles north of Pyongyang to cut-off retreating North Korean Army units. It was a beautiful fall day as they made their landings among rice paddies and took up positions to block retreating enemy units. The afternoon and night of October 20 were quiet. The next day, however, Wilson's unit came under heavy fire from a vastly superior enemy determined to break through and escape to the north.

The 187th regimental combat team's mission was to ensure the high ground north of the town of Opari. On the morning of October 21, 1950, as the unit conducted a reconnaissance in force, it was flanked on three sides and forced to withdraw after sustaining heavy casualties. During this action, PFC Wilson rendered life-saving aid to numerous casualties. As his unit prepared to withdraw further, Wilson noticed that one casualty that had been presumed dead was still alive. Despite the orders to withdraw further, Wilson moved to aid and comfort the casualty. As he administered morphine and prepared to dress the casualty's wounds, he was killed by point blank enemy fire. On August 2, 1951, his widow was presented with the Medal of Honor by General Omar Bradley, in recognition of PFC Richard G. Wilson's conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity above and beyond the call of duty.

PFC Wilson volunteered to serve his country. He did so honorably. He came to us as a product of a principled family with strong values. He made remarkable contributions to the proud legacy of Army medicine. He bore great burdens with dedication and selflessness. And he was taken from us too soon.
