

Jr., the late Northwest Indiana Congressman, and the Northern Indiana Public Service Company.

Steven C. Beering, Purdue University President Emeritus, will receive the Chancellor's Award for Dedication to Higher Education and Extraordinary Public Service, and will be inducted into the Purdue University Calumet Hall of Fame for his long-time support of the Purdue Calumet campus. He served as president of Purdue University for 17 years before his retirement last month. During his tenure, the Purdue system experienced significant growth in both enrollment and facilities. Clear examples of his commitment to expanding facilities and services at Purdue Calumet can be seen in the development of the Donald S. Powers Computer Education Building, the Classroom Office Building, the Charlotte R. Riley Child Center, the Challenger Learning Center of Northwest Indiana, and Purdue Calumet's newest facility, the Center at Purdue University Calumet, a conference and special events facility. His colleagues at Purdue Calumet will sincerely miss President Beering and his commitment to educational and administrative excellence.

The Chancellor's Award for Extraordinary Public Service will be presented posthumously to Congressman Adam Benjamin, Jr. Congressman Benjamin represented Indiana's First Congressional District from 1976 until his death in 1982. Prior to his election to Congress, Benjamin served as the zoning administrator and the executive secretary to the mayor in Gary, Indiana. He was elected to the Indiana State House in 1966 and to the Indiana State Senate in 1970. The late Congressman Benjamin tirelessly devoted himself to advancing the interests of his constituents in Northwest Indiana. He was characterized by many as a dedicated and effective public servant, sharing the hopes and dreams of the people he served and the community he represented.

Northern Indiana Public Service Company (NIPSCO) will receive the Carl H. Elliott Award for exceptional Philanthropy for its extensive support of non-profit organizations in Northwest Indiana. Notably, NIPSCO has established an endowed scholarship at Purdue Calumet, and has provided start-up funding for the University's Resource Center and Entrepreneurship Center. The company's investment in the educational opportunities of those in its community has earned it the acclaim of students, educators, and administrators at Purdue Calumet.

Mr. Speaker, I ask you and my other distinguished colleagues to join me in congratulating Purdue University Calumet and this year's Hall of Fame inductees for their lifetime dedication not only to the university, but to all of Northwest Indiana.

A TRIBUTE TO COMMANDER
TEMPLE L. ALLEN

HON. DUNCAN HUNTER

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Mr. HUNTER. Mr. Speaker, today I rise to recognize the outstanding service and dedication of my friend from San Diego, Lieutenant Commander Temple L. Allen. His career in the United States Navy spans three decades and has earned many awards and recognitions, including Navy Commendation Medal presented to him by the Secretary of the Navy. I would like to take a moment to commend Temple's exceptional service to our country.

Temple began half a century ago in Ontario, California where he enlisted, and upon finishing submarine school was assigned to the U.S.S. Catfish. Since then, Temple went on to provide expert organizational guidance and leadership that was required to effectively repair many submarines at the NEREUS facility. He was recognized by his peers for his outstanding responsiveness in the NEREUS repair department and the high quality of work that was directly attributed to him. Throughout his tenure in the Navy, Temple inspired leadership, professionalism, and devotion to duty to those he served with and has continually conducted himself with the highest traditions of the United States Navy.

Mr. Speaker, in an era when the U.S. military is often not given sufficient recognition, outstanding leaders, such as Temple, exemplify the commitment our armed forces has to superior performance. As a veteran and Chairman of the House Subcommittee on Military Procurement, I would like to commend Commander Temple L. Allen for all of his efforts and years of service and to the United States Navy and our country.

TRIBUTE TO "ANGELS IN ADOPTION"
KEVIN AND EILEEN
GILLIGAN

HON. JAMES T. WALSH

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Mr. WALSH. Mr. Speaker, each year in an effort to improve adoption policy and practice, the Congressional Coalition on Adoption holds a national award ceremony honoring "Angels in Adoption." The purpose of the "Angels in Adoption" campaign is to help raise public awareness of the many different ways committed individuals in our country can help children and families through adoption. This crusade is an opportunity to recognize these unsung heroes who make a difference for needy children all across the world.

Today, I would like to recognize two of this year's "Angels in Adoption" from my congressional district, Kevin and Eileen Gilligan of LaFayette, New York. As a couple, the Gilligans epitomize the loving, caring commitment found in all adoptive parents. In June of 1999, Kevin Gilligan wrote a journal for his new and youngest son, Louis, chronicling their trip to the Russia Republic to adopt him, which became front-page stories in the Syracuse Newspapers. Previously, the Gilligans adopted their daughter, Addie, who is now 13 years old, and their son, Min, who is 11 years old, from Korea.

I want to commend the Gilligans for the warmth and compassion they have extended to children in need. When Kevin and Eileen met Louis for the first time, he did not even know how to express the most simple of affections, a kiss. As a family, they welcomed him and their two other children into their home and showed them how to love and be loved.

I use this opportunity to recognize Central New York's "Angels in Adoption," Kevin and Eileen Gilligan, and salute all adopted families in our nation.

IN RECOGNITION OF STATE SENATOR M. ADELA "DELL" EADS' OUTSTANDING SERVICE TO THE PEOPLE OF CONNECTICUT

HON. NANCY L. JOHNSON

OF CONNECTICUT

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Mrs. JOHNSON of Connecticut. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to mark the end of an era in the government of my home state of Connecticut. With the retirement of State Senator M. Adela "Dell" Eads, the Connecticut Legislature is losing more than just a valued and respected member, it is losing a woman who represents the best that Connecticut has to offer, the epitome of the finest tradition of public service.

With over 24 years of service in the Connecticut State Legislature, Dell has left her mark on countless pieces of landmark legislation. From her work to establish the Connecticut Office of the Child Advocate to her leadership on welfare reform, Dell always championed the cause of Connecticut's children and families and acted to protect their interests.

But while Dell's legislative accomplishments are too numerous to mention, the one quality she will be remembered for is clear: leadership. Whether it was as leader of the Republican caucus or as President Pro Tem of the Senate, Dell commanded the respect of adversaries and allies alike. Her career in the legislature is a testament to the fact that civility, intelligence, integrity and strength are qualities that can be found in one individual. Such a public servant is a gift to be treasured in a democracy.

Connecticut and our country are the beneficiaries of the outstanding service provided by M. Adela Eads. I have been privileged to serve with her and to enjoy her friendship as well. I wish her all the best for a happy, healthy and productive retirement.

TRIBUTE TO THE HISPANIC
PARADE COMMITTEE, INC.

HON. JOSÉ E. SERRANO

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Mr. SERRANO. Mr. Speaker, it is with great joy that I today pay tribute to the Hispanic Parade Committee, Inc. on its 36th Grand Parade. The parade will be held on October 8, 2000, in New York City.

In 1965 the Hispanic Societies met in New York for the purpose of celebrating the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus on October 12, 1492. This was to be accomplished through a parade, which would celebrate the heritage and spirit of the children of the Hispanic American union with a message from Spain and the Latin American nations, representing each country's culture, traditions and folklore.

Mr. Speaker, this project came to fruition in August of 1965 when the Hispanic Societies agreed to celebrate with a true Fiesta in the Latin American spirit that every year in the city of New York on the Sunday closest to the 12th of October. From that year on, the Hispanic Parade Committee has organized the memorable annual event now known as "Desfile de la Hispanidad" with the participation of Spain and all Hispanic American nations, to commemorate and celebrate Hispanic culture, races, language, religion, and traditions through colorful presentations of each country's costumes, folklore, and music, marching up Fifth Avenue from 44th Street to 72nd Street.

The Hispanic Parade Committee is made up of 50 organizations and a board of 27 representatives who spend a whole year preparing and organizing this complex multinational public event, with numerous cultural and entertainment activities. Among the many activities are the Spring Dance in honor of the reigning Queen of the Parade and her Court of Honor; the Salute to the Americas, which are series of conferences and lectures given by important authorities of the Hispanic world; the Art Exhibits where Latin American artists are invited to exhibit their art; the Sports Championships, which include soccer and softball competitions; the election of the Queen of the Hispanic Parade; a Catholic Mass of the Hispanic Parade, which is celebrated in St. Patrick's Cathedral and dedicated to a Patron Saint of a participating country; and the Great Gala Banquet to celebrate and recognize outstanding individuals of the Hispanic world.

The Hispanic Parade Committee has been growing every year. Fifty organizations belonging to the twenty-one Hispanic-American countries are now affiliated in the Parade, there will be a band, 40 allegorical carriages, and 30 folkloric groups representing these organizations.

Mr. Speaker, it is with great pride that I ask my colleagues to join me in recognizing the Hispanic Parade Committee, Inc. and in wishing them continued success on October 8 and in the future.

HONORING THE 50TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE RAVENNA CHURCH OF THE NAZARENE

HON. ERNIE FLETCHER

OF KENTUCKY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Mr. FLETCHER. Mr. Speaker, it is my honor to recognize the Ravenna Church of the Nazarene during its 50th Anniversary celebration. This quaint church, nestled in Central Kentucky, has served the community and its members in many different ways over the past 50 years—now they come together to reflect on the many memories and years of fellowship.

Located on Main Street in Ravenna, Kentucky, the Church of the Nazarene holds services in the same building that was dedicated in November of 1956. Now, 50 years later, the Church still stands on a strong foundation, rich with faith and a strong desire to serve its congregation and the surrounding community. It's an active congregation, with weekly services and children's groups. Each year, the congregation comes together for the annual homecoming, where stories are shared and many past years are revisited with joy.

It is a pleasure to recognize the Ravenna Church of the Nazarene on the House floor today, during its 50th Anniversary celebration. I wish this church and its members the very best for many, many years to come.

THE COLORADO COALITION FOR NEW ENERGY TECHNOLOGIES

HON. MATT SALMON

OF ARIZONA

HON. MARK UDALL

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Mr. SALMON. Mr. Speaker, though my colleague, Mr. UDALL of Colorado, and I are from different states and opposite political parties, we join together today in saluting the Colorado Coalition for New Energy Technologies. This coalition, established early this year, brings together Colorado businesses and non-profit groups in support of environmentally responsible economic growth through the efficient use of Colorado's abundant and clean sources of energy.

This new coalition has already accomplished several successes in its short tenure, but perhaps one of the most notable was to help key members of the Colorado state legislature establish the Colorado Renewables and Energy Efficiency Caucus. Modeled on the U.S. House Renewables and Energy Efficiency Caucus, of which we are co-chairs, this state caucus was founded in March 2000 by seven state Senators and Representatives of both parties. Within two months of its founding, this caucus more than doubled in size to 17 state legislators before the 2000 Colorado General Assembly adjourned. Like the U.S. House Caucus, the primary goal of the Colorado caucus is to educate legislators about cutting-edge advances in renewable energy and efficiency technologies, many of which are developed in Colorado at the National Renewable Energy Laboratory in Golden.

Throughout its activities, the Colorado Coalition for New Energy Technologies seeks to emphasize how investment in new energy technologies helps sustain the economic prosperity of Colorado and of the United States. In its short existence, it has proven to be a resource for its members, as well as to Colorado state legislators seeking timely and accurate information on new energy technologies.

We salute the Colorado Coalition for New Energy Technologies, its members and its leadership for the valuable contribution it is making to the formation of energy policy in Colorado.

ANNUAL BANKING FEE SURVEY
EXTENSION ACT

HON. JOHN J. LaFALCE

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Mr. LaFALCE. Mr. Speaker, I am today introducing legislation to extend and expand provisions in current law that require the Federal Reserve Board to report annually to Congress on the cost and availability of retail banking services. These annual bank fee studies have been an invaluable source of information about banking costs and trends that have benefitted consumers and assisted the Banking Committee's oversight of financial activities. The Federal Reserve Board acted last year, under existing law, to terminate all future bank fee reporting. My legislation would amend current law to continue these reports and expand them to reflect broader market activity. The House has passed broader legislation reauthorizing a number of important consumer reports, including the bank fee report in its current form, but that bill is currently awaiting Senate action.

In 1989, Congress directed the Federal Reserve Board, as part of the Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery and Enforcement Act (FIRREA), to study and report annually on discernible changes in the cost and availability of certain retail banking services. The purpose was to determine whether banks would pass on the expense of higher deposit insurance costs resulting from the savings and loan crisis to consumers. These annual studies were expanded, under the Riegle-Neal Interstate Banking and Branching Efficiency Act of 1994, to include more detailed state-by-state reporting on discernible changes in the cost and availability of retail banking services resulting from the lifting of bank interstate branching restrictions.

Last year, the Federal Reserve Board determined that its annual banking fee surveys and reports were no longer needed. Responding to provisions of the 1995 Federal Reports Elimination and Sunset Act that permit federal agencies to eliminate outdated or unnecessary reports, the Board included the annual bank fees surveys among a number of Congressionally mandated reports that it proposed to eliminate. The Board's rationale was that the original intent of the reports, determining whether the added costs of deposit insurance were being passed on to consumers, was no longer relevant since banks are now paying minimal premiums for FDIC deposit insurance, and consumers now have broader access to bank fee information over the Internet.

While concerns with higher banking costs arising from the S&L crisis have certainly subsided, the annual service fee reports have taken on increased importance in recent years with the passage of interstate branching and increased consolidation within the banking industry. Passage of the landmark Financial Service Modernization Act last year also creates a continuing imperative to understand how increased integration and cross marketing of services among banks, investment firms and insurance companies will affect the cost and availability of basic financial services.
