AMENDMENT NO. 4289

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. President, Senator HAGEL has a technical amendment at the desk, and I ask for its consideration.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

The Senator from Illinois [Mr. FITZGERALD], for Mr. HAGEL, proposes an amendment numbered 4289.

The amendment is as follows:

(Purpose: To include in the statement of policies that there is a need to responsibly manage the world’s agricultural, as well as, natural resources for sustained productivity, health and resilience to climate variability)

On page 23, line 2, insert “agricultural and” after “world’s”.

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the amendment be agreed to.

The amendment (No. 4289) was agreed to.

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent the committee substitute amendment, as amended, be agreed to, the bill be read a third time and passed, as amended, the motion to reconsider be laid upon the table, and that any statements relating to the bill be printed in the RECORD.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The committee substitute, as amended, was agreed to.

The bill (H.R. 4002), as amended, was read the third time and passed.

ORDERS FOR THURSDAY, OCTOBER 5, 2000

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it recess until the hour of 9:30 a.m., on Thursday, October 5. I further ask consent that on Thursday, immediately following the prayer, the Journal of proceedings be approved to date, the time for the two leaders be reserved for their use later in the day, and the Senate then resume consideration of H.J. Res. 110, the continuing resolution, under the previous order.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. FITZGERALD. For the information of all Senators, the Senate will begin closing remarks on the continuing resolution at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow. Under the order, there will be approximately 30 minutes equally divided on the resolution, with a vote on adoption of the resolution scheduled to occur at 10 a.m.

Following the vote, the Senate is expected to resume consideration of the conference report to accompany the Interior appropriations bill. The Senate may also begin consideration of any other appropriations bills available for action; therefore, Senators should be prepared for votes throughout the day.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR AND RELATED AGENCIES APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 2001—CONFERENCE REPORT—Continued

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. President, at this time I would like to return to our discussion of the Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library, which is a project in the Interior conference committee report that we have been discussing from time to time throughout the day.

I spoke earlier, for several hours, about concerns I have had with the language in the conference committee report. The language authorizes $50 million in Federal expenditures for the library in Springfield. It says that the purpose of those expenditures would be for the construction of the library, for planning, design, acquiring, and constructing the library. But it is interesting; the actual language in the authorization does not say who is getting the money. It says that the $50 million would be going to an entity that would be selected later.

So the Senate and the House have a conference committee report before us with a $50 million authorization for the library in Springfield, IL, but we do not know to whom we are going to give the money.

When I saw this language earlier on, when the authorizing bill came from the House to my Senate committee, I saw that as a problem. I saw it also as a problem that there was no requirement that the construction project be competitively bid.

I thought, what if this money falls into the hands of a private entity? The entity in the bill could apparently be private or public. There is no restriction in the bill that it can only go to a
