

House should make sure that the most sacred of bonds, that between a parent and child, is preserved. We must pressure signatory countries to comply with the Hague Convention, especially in cases such as these, where their own courts have ordered a return.

SALUTING SOUTH FLORIDIANS WHO PARTICIPATED IN SYDNEY 2000 OLYMPICS

(Ms. ROS-LEHTINEN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. ROS-LEHTINEN. Mr. Speaker, it is with great pleasure that I congratulate all the individuals from South Florida who participated in the Sidney 2000 Olympics.

I am proud to know that there were athletes from our area representing the United States. These individuals honored our community and our country:

Juan Miguel Moreno in Tai Kwon Do;
Angel Perez in kayak;
Magnus Liljedahl in star sailing, he won the Gold Medal;
Alonzo Mourning and Tim Hardaway in basketball, also Gold Medalists;
Seilala Sua in discus;
Michele Davison, Jenny Keim, and David Pichler in diving;
Margie Goldstein-Engle in equestrian;
Lauren Meece and Lauren Moreno in judo;
Vince Spadea in tennis;
Mickisha Hurley and George Roumain in volleyball;
And Doug Meintkiewicz in baseball, a Gold Medalist.

There were other residents from South Florida who, although they did not represent the United States, did an outstanding job in representing other countries, and this demonstrated the cultural diversity and excellence that makes our area such a unique place and a wonderful area in which to live.

These athletes stand as examples of perfection, excellence, and diligence, and of what can be achieved through many years of hard work and dedication. I am proud to know that they are from South Florida, and I ask my congressional colleagues to join me in congratulating not only these Olympians, but all the athletes who showed the rest of the world the best that our country has to offer.

AN AMERICA WITHOUT GOD IS AN AMERICA THE FOUNDERS NEVER INTENDED

(Mr. TRAFICANT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. TRAFICANT. Mr. Speaker, the United States Army in Europe has denied Catholic soldiers the right to hold mass in the base chapel. A spokesman said, and I quote, "The Army will not pay for the cost of a priest." He further said, "If we allow the Catholics in, we must allow all religions in."

Now, if that is not enough to shred the Bible, the Army does allow and permits witchcraft and pagan ceremonies at the base. The spokesman said, and I quote, "The witchcraft groups pay for their own pagan ministers."

Unbelievable. It is time to call in the dogs, throw the coffee grinds on the fire, the hunting is over. When the U.S. Army allows satan in one door and will not allow God in the other door, America is so screwed up we do not know where we are going.

Beam me up, here. I yield back the fact that an America without God is an America that the Founders never planned.

WHO DO YOU TRUST?

(Mr. SMITH of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. SMITH of Texas. Mr. Speaker, George Bush wants our children to learn more in school. He wants those who work to keep more of their hard-earned dollars, and he wants those who are retired to have a secure future.

George Bush trusts the people. His opponent wants more government. George Bush trusts parents with school choices. He trusts taxpayers to spend their dollars better than the government. He trusts retirees to invest their savings.

On the other hand, his opponent has a trust problem. Under the Clinton-Gore administration, numerous officials have been indicted or convicted, 83 witnesses refused to testify in court about campaign contribution violations, and another 21 fled the country.

To restore integrity to the White House, the American people deserve a president they can trust. George Bush wants a government worthy of so great a people, a government that is honest, nonpartisan, and scandal-free. Only one presidential candidate can lead America to that shining goal: George Bush.

THE REPUBLICANS' FIG LEAF PRESCRIPTION DRUG BILL

(Mr. McDERMOTT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. McDERMOTT. Mr. Speaker, today is Republican fig leaf bill on the cost of medications. The agriculture bill allows the reimportation of medications that have been shipped abroad to be brought back into the country, presumably to be sold at lower prices.

What the Republicans want the American people to believe is that the pharmaceutical companies will send medications out of the country that they charge $1 in this country for but only 30 cents in Canada, and they will allow them to come back in and be sold for 30 cents.

Mr. Speaker, this provision is a fraud. It allows the pharmaceutical companies to relabel the drugs so people will be confused about whether it is the same medication. It also allows them a 5-year sunset, and it also restricts the contracts when they sell them abroad. They will write a contract that says to the Canadians, "We are selling this to you, and you agree that you will not reimport."

This bill is filled with fraudulent information, but it is going to be the basis of 100 to 218 press releases today: "The Republicans have dealt with the problem of the cost of medications."

TEN THOUSAND CHICKENS

(Mr. PITTS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PITTS. Mr. Speaker, reputations are earned. They take a long time to acquire, as one develops and improves his abilities.

Like those in centuries past who told tall tales about Paul Bunyan or Pecos Bill, it takes a certain talent to stretch the truth.

Well, there is another tall tale reported in the papers this morning that was spun some 20 years ago. It is a tale told by a Washington politician who liked to fancy himself a farmer.

He told his friends that he was once a chicken farmer. He said, "I have raised chickens myself, 10,000 at one time, 5,000 in each of two houses." The politician who told this tale was also the son of a politician so he grew up in Washington, not on a farm.

True, he would go back home to Tennessee once in a while to visit, but all those chickens, they were on another farm that he did not visit. He certainly did not raise 10,000 chickens.

This candidate has earned a place among the best spinners of yarns in America. He tells some of the best tall tales today. The tale of the 10,000 chickens is just one more tall tale from Tennessee. AL GORE spins a good yarn.

SENIORS WANT AN AFFORDABLE PRESCRIPTION DRUG PLAN THROUGH MEDICARE, NOT EMPTY RHETORIC

(Ms. DELAURO asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Ms. DELAURO. Mr. Speaker, our seniors face skyrocketing prices of prescription drugs. Many are forced to choose between purchasing their medication and buying groceries. For those skipping meals or missing rent payments, a prescription drug benefit is
