Discovery." Lewis and Clark chose nine men in Clarksville to join them on the journey, and as Ambrose notes in Undaunted Courage, there "the Corps of Discovery was born."

The crew departed on October 26, 1803, thus marking Clarksville, Indiana as the actual point of origin for the Lewis and Clark Expedition.

Mr. Speaker, local officials and interested citizens in the Falls of the Ohio area are now planning an event of national significance to commemorate the bicentennial of the expedition's beginning. In 2003, Clarksville and the surrounding area will play an important role in commemorating the expedition and reminding our nation of its importance.

I encourage all Americans wishing to retrace the steps of the explorers to visit the Falls of the Ohio and its surrounding area. And I urge my colleagues to support H.R. 3621 so William Clark will receive the rank he was promised and so richly deserves.
