

Just last month, the Treasury Department confirmed that Social Security numbers would no longer be visible through the windows of benefits checks, such as Social Security checks.

However, the need for this legislation still exists. Any future administration could, for the sake of time or efficiency, return to the practice of using Social Security numbers for positive identification. The banking industry's concern over efficiency has been addressed in my bill by leaving Social Security numbers on the benefit checks, just not in a place where it can be seen in a windowed envelope.

H.R. 3218 ensures that seniors are never again put at risk of having their Social Security numbers displayed in plain view where they are available for criminals and fraud. It will protect the privacy and confidentiality of our Social Security numbers.

Again, I would like to thank the leadership and the gentleman from Florida (Chairman SHAW) for bringing this bill to the floor for consideration.

Mr. TURNER. Madam Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Madam Speaker, I rise in support of this bipartisan legislation, H.R. 3218, the Social Security Number Confidentiality Act, which amends the law to direct the Secretary of the Treasury to make necessary changes to ensure that Social Security numbers are not visible through the unopened mailings of government checks or other drafts.

I appreciate the gentleman from California (Mr. CALVERT) for bringing this legislation forward, and I also commend the Department of the Treasury which also noted that this change needed to be made.

In fact, in August of this year, the Treasury Department announced that Social Security numbers would no longer be visible through the envelope window of checks mailed to Social Security recipients.

This past September, the Treasury Department began using the check numbers rather than the Social Security numbers to identify and to retrieve payments that are ineligible for delivery. This was a welcome and a necessary change.

I commend the gentleman from California (Mr. CALVERT) and the Department of the Treasury both for noting that this important change needed to be made on the mailings of our Nation's Social Security checks.

It is interesting to note that there are a number of House Members who also have privacy bills that are pending who are anxious to have this House act on their legislation. The gentleman from Wisconsin (Mr. KLECZKA) has H.R. 1450; the gentleman from Florida (Mr. SHAW) has H.R. 4857; the gentlewoman from Oregon (Ms. HOOLEY) has H.R. 4311; the gentleman from Massachusetts (Mr. MARKEY) has H.R. 4611. All of these bills are worthy of consideration by this Congress.

Unfortunately, time seems to be running out on these important measures that are designed, as the bill of the gentleman from California (Mr. CALVERT) is designed, to protect the privacy of American citizens.

Again, clearly, our citizens do not deserve to have their Social Security numbers displayed to the public on the envelopes in which they receive their Social Security checks.

Madam Speaker, I urge all Members to join in adopting this resolution.

Madam Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. OSE. Madam Speaker, I also urge adoption of this bill. Having no other requests for time, I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from California (Mr. OSE) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 3218.

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

Mr. OSE. Madam Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX and the Chair's prior announcement, further proceedings on this motion will be postponed.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. OSE. Madam Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks on H.R. 5210.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.

Mr. OSE. Madam Speaker, I yield such time as he may consume to the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. GOODLING).

Mr. GOODLING. Madam Speaker, I thank the gentleman for yielding me this time.

Madam Speaker, I am pleased to have the opportunity to speak on behalf of my legislation, H.R. 5210, which would designate the United States postal facility at 200 South George Street in York, Pennsylvania, as the George Atlee Goodling Post Office. I would like to note that this legislation is cosponsored by all of the Members of the Pennsylvania delegation.

Madam Speaker, my father was a man who dedicated his life to public service and to agriculture. He was quite a local athlete, playing football, basketball, baseball, both in prep school and in Pennsylvania State University until he broke his leg. I can remember as an elementary child seeing him continue to play first base on the Loganville baseball team.

My brothers and sisters were not lectured on public service. We were not lectured that we must give back. We learned by example because both Mother and Dad were volunteers in most everything there was in our community.

Dad was the fire chief in Loganville for as long as I can remember. He was the chief cook and bottle washer at all fire company suppers as long as I can remember. He served on the school board for 28 years. He served in the State House of Representatives for 14 years and then came to the U.S. House of Representatives for 12 years.

After serving in the Navy in World War I, he completed his studies at Pennsylvania State University and began coaching and teaching in the State of Delaware.

He then returned to Loganville to begin what became the Goodling Orchard and Truck farming business, which is still continued today.

He used his education to teach vocational agriculture and was, again, the executive secretary for the Pennsylvania Horticulture Association for as long as I can remember.

He used his knowledge both in the State legislature from the education he received and in the Congress to further conservation and agriculture.

As a State representative, he wrote the first Pennsylvania soil conservation legislation and introduced legislation to regulate the marketing of insecticides.

When he came to the Congress, he was assigned to the Committees on Agriculture and Merchant Marine and Fisheries where he could continue his work on behalf of the farmer and conservation. He was known here as the "Farmer Congressman" by his colleagues and worked hard to ensure that the interests of Eastern farmers was carried equally as important as those of the Midwest.

During his tenure in the Congress, he worked to provide funds to the States for hunter education programs and to provide additional funds for wildlife restoration.

Upon his retirement from the Congress of the United States, he returned to Loganville and continued his work on the family farm and family orchards. I am pleased to introduce this legislation and have it come to the floor, and I ask that it would be passed.

Mr. TURNER. Madam Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Madam Speaker, it is with a great deal of pleasure that I rise in support of H.R. 5210, which names a postal facility after George Atlee Goodling, the father of the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. GOODLING), who has served with such distinction, himself, in this House.

I suppose there is no greater occasion than when we have the opportunity to pay tribute to our fathers. I know it is with a great deal of pride and satisfaction that the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. GOODLING) can stand today before this House and pay tribute to his father in this way.

Clearly, both Goodlings served with distinction in this House and served the people of Pennsylvania very, very well. So I take a great deal of pride and satisfaction personally in being able to be a part of joining in support of H.R. 5210, to name this postal facility after George Atlee Goodling.

Madam Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. OSE. Madam Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from California (Mr. OSE) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 5210.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds having voted in favor thereof) the rules were suspended and the bill was passed.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

The Clerk read as follows:

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from California (Mr. OSE) and the gentleman from Texas (Mr. TURNER) each will control 20 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from California (Mr. OSE).

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. OSE. Madam Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks on H.R. 5016, the bill now under consideration.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.

Mr. OSE. Madam Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. TURNER. Madam Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

H.R. 5016, Madam Speaker, names a postal facility after J.T. Weeker. The legislation was introduced by my friend and committee colleague, the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. BLAGOJEVICH), on July 27 of this year.

Madam Speaker, I yield such time as he may consume to the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. DAVIS) representing the great City of Chicago.

Mr. DAVIS of Illinois. Madam Speaker, I want to thank the gentleman for yielding me this time. I could not let this moment go by without expressing some comments relative to John Thomas Weeker, J.T., as we all called him, especially those who knew him.

He was area vice president of operations for the United States Postal Service; and, unfortunately, he passed away at an early age. It was very interesting to me that as J.T. did his work in the Midwest area, how much he was revered by the individuals who worked with and for him.

As a matter of fact, I had the occasion to attend his funeral services, and he had asked that one of his employees give the eulogy. That was a fellow that he had supervised, Rufus Porter, who is the lead executive for the Chicago post office. It was also interesting that he had asked that the Chicago Postal Choir would perform at his services. Even though he was not from the Midwest, he was not from Chicago, he had grown up on the East Coast, he had adopted the area as his home and decided that that is where he wanted to have the last comments made for him.

It is also interesting that employees of the Postal Service made the request to have this facility named for their leader. It was Rufus Porter who was the first person who suggested that there ought to be some lasting way of remembering the tremendous service that J.T. had provided to the Postal Service, and especially to the Midwest region. And so, Madam Speaker, I am pleased to join with my colleagues in bestowing this honor upon a tremendous executive who gave not only of himself, in terms of providing leadership to postal operations, but who was an integral part of his community.

A little phrase he had about moving the mail that he sometimes would like to say, when talking about a letter, clean hands gentle touch; surely we owe a letter that much. And that is how J.T. felt about the work that he did in the Postal Service.

Mr. TURNER. Madam Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume to join the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. DAVIS) and the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. BLAGOJEVICH) in urging the House to adopt this resolution naming this postal facility after an outstanding public servant who worked every day to be sure that the mail arrived on time.

All too often, I think, we fail to acknowledge the contributions that are made every day by the fine employees of our Federal Government. So, Madam Speaker, I urge adoption of H.R. 5016.
