□ 1021

Mrs. CUBIN changed her vote from “nay” to “yea.”
So the Journal was approved.
The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

Stated for:
Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, I was unavoidably delayed due to the late arrival of the airplane I was traveling on from New York because of poor weather conditions. Accordingly, I was unable to vote on rollcall No. 574, a Journal vote. Had I been present, I would have voted “yea.”

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. PEASE). Will the gentleman from North Carolina (Mr. WATT) come forward and lead the House in the Pledge of Allegiance.
Mr. WATT of North Carolina led the Pledge of Allegiance as follows:
I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF INTENTION TO OFFER MOTION TO INSTRUCT CONFEREES ON H.R. 4577, DEPARTMENTS OF LABOR, HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES, EDUCATION AND RELATED AGENCIES APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 2001

Mr. BENTSEN. Mr. Speaker, pursuant to clause 7(c) of House rule XXII, I hereby notify the House of my intention tomorrow to offer the following motion to instruct House conferees on H.R. 4577, a bill making appropriations for fiscal year 2001 for the Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services and Education.
I move that the managers on the part of the House at the conference on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on the Senate amendment to the bill, H.R. 4577, be instructed, in resolving the differences between the two Houses on the funding level for program management in carrying out titles XI, XVIII, XIX, and XXI of the Social Security Act, to choose a level that reflects a requirement that State plans for medical assistance under such title XIX provide for adequate reimbursement of physicians, providers of services, and suppliers furnishing items and services under the plan in the State.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. YOUNG of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks on H.J. Res. 120.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Florida?
There was no objection.

MAKING FURTHER CONTINUING APPROPRIATIONS FOR FISCAL YEAR 2001

Mr. YOUNG of Florida. Mr. Speaker, pursuant to the provisions of House Resolution 646, I call up the joint resolution (H.J. Res. 120) making further continuing appropriations for the fiscal year 2001, and for other purposes, and ask for its immediate consideration in the House.
The Clerk read the title of the resolution.
The text of House Joint Resolution 120 is as follows:
H.J. RES. 120

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Public Law 106-275, is further amended by striking the date specified in section 106(c) and inserting “October 31, 2000”.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to House Resolution 646, the gentleman from Florida (Mr. YOUNG) and the gentleman from Wisconsin (Mr. OBEY) each will control 30 minutes.
The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Florida (Mr. YOUNG).
Mr. YOUNG of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, this is another of the 1-day CR’s. I do not think it requires a lot of debate. So I would like to use a couple of minutes just to compliment my friend and colleague, the gentleman from Wisconsin (Mr. OBEY). He looks wide awake this morning despite the fact that we had a long night last night. But at about 1 o’clock this morning, I think the gentleman from Wisconsin (Mr. OBEY) and I both felt that we had made some accomplishments in reaching the end on the issue of the last appropriations bill that is out there.

Other than that, Mr. Speaker, there is nothing much more to say on this issue. We all know what the issue is. But the good news is that we are really at the end on the final appropriations bill.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.
Mr. OBEY. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.
Mr. Speaker, I would like to say good morning to my friend, the gentleman
