

the George E. Brown, Jr. United States Courthouse.

It is altogether fitting that the federal courthouse in Riverside be named for the late Representative Brown. It was through his work for the people of the 42nd district of California that the courthouse was built. I only wish that he had lived to see its grand opening next year.

George was a champion of justice. Before he could vote, he helped to integrate university student housing. He fought against the internment of Japanese-Americans in World War II and stood on the side of workers in labor battles. George always asked us to use all of our assembled knowledge to improve the lives of our fellow humans and our world. In my long association with George Brown, I always knew on which side he would stand: on the side of justice.

Since his death, we have seen many tributes to the late George Brown. The USDA Salinity Laboratory at the University of California bears his name. The giant Sequoias that George loved now are protected with monument status, and he was remembered at the dedication ceremony. More tributes are planned. However, I am particularly pleased that the federal court building in Riverside will be known as the George E. Brown, Jr. United States Courthouse. ●

ORDER OF PROCEDURE

Mr. MURKOWSKI. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that if between today and November 14 the Senate receives from the House of Representatives continuing resolutions funding the Government for 1 day at a time, the individual resolutions be agreed to and the motions to reconsider be laid upon the table.

I further ask that if the House of Representatives passes a continuing resolution that contains language other than the funding of the Federal Government for 1 day, the Senate automatically reconvene 2 hours after receipt of the papers in the Senate and it be pending in the Senate following the granting of the routine convening requests.

I further ask unanimous consent that if the House of Representatives does not pass S. Con. Res. 160, the Senate reconvene on Monday, November 6, at 11 a.m. for a pro forma session only; that immediately following the convening on Monday, the Senate immediately stand in recess until 11 a.m. on Thursday, November 9, for a pro forma session only. I ask consent that following the convening on Thursday, the Senate stand in recess until 11 a.m. on Monday, November 13, for a pro forma session only. I ask consent that following the convening on Monday, the Senate automatically stand in recess until 12 noon on Tuesday, November 14, 2000, as provided in the previous order.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. MURKOWSKI. I must say the cooperation on the unanimous consent leads this Senator from Alaska to dream a little bit about some of the bills that he would like to pass by unanimous consent such as the ANWR issue and university lands, but I guess Senate tradition dictates otherwise so it is back to reality, Mr. President.

ORDER FOR RECESS

Mr. MURKOWSKI. Mr. President, in the closing script, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it recess until the hour of 12 noon on Tuesday, November 14 under the provisions of S. Con. Res. 160.

PROGRAM

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. MURKOWSKI. Mr. President, I would announce that if the House of Representatives does not pass S. Con. Res. 160, the adjournment resolution, then the Senate reconvenes for three pro forma sessions between now and November 14. If the House passes clean continuing resolutions each day, those resolutions will be passed upon arrival in the Senate. Also, as a reminder to all Senators, the weekly party caucuses will occur on Tuesday, November 14. Therefore, the Senate will be in recess between the hours of 12:30 and 2:15 p.m.

RECESS UNTIL TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 2000

Mr. MURKOWSKI. Mr. President, seeing no other Members here and no one seeking recognition, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I now ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in recess under the provisions of S. Con. Res. 160.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 8:37 p.m., recessed until Tuesday, November 14, 2000, at 12 noon.
