

Sixth Congress), $1,000,000 to be disbursed by the Secretary of the Senate and to remain available until September 30, 2001. Funds made available under this heading shall be available for payment, on a direct or reimbursable basis, whether incurred on, before, or after, October 1, 2000: Provided, That the compensation of any employee of the Committee on Rules and Administration of the Senate who has been designated to perform service for the Joint Congressional Committee on Inaugural Ceremonies shall continue to be paid by the Committee on Rules and Administration, but the account from which such staff member is paid may be reimbursed for the services of the staff member (including agency contributions when appropriate) out of funds made available under this heading.

“(b) During fiscal year 2001 the Secretary of Defense shall provide protective services on a non-reimbursable basis to the United States Capitol Police with respect to the following events:

“(1) Upon request of the Chair of the Joint Congressional Committee on Inaugural Ceremonies established under Senate Concurrent Resolution 89 (One Hundred Sixth Congress), agreed to March 14, 2000, the proceedings and ceremonies conducted for the inauguration of the President-elect and Vice President-elect of the United States.

“(2) Upon request of the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, the joint session of Congress held to receive a message from the President of the United States on the State of the Union.

“SEC. 122. Notwithstanding any other provision of this joint resolution except Section 107, $5,961,000 shall be available for a payment to the District of Columbia to reimburse the District for expenses incurred in connection with Presidential inauguration activities.

“SEC. 123. Notwithstanding limitations imposed by this continuing resolution except Section 107, the Executive Residence at the White House is authorized to make expenditures to provide for the orderly transition and moving expenses following the election on November 7, 2000.”

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding section 106 of Public Law 106-275, funds shall be available and obligations for mandatory payments due on or about December 1, 2000, may continue to be made.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Florida?

Mr. OBEY. Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object, I yield to the gentleman from Florida so he might be allowed to explain his motion.

Mr. YOUNG of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for yielding.

Mr. Speaker, I wish to advise Members this extends the date of the original CR until December 5, 2000. It provides authority to make mandatory payments due on December 1, 2000, which are Social Security, Veterans benefits and other entitlement programs that have to be approved.

It amends the original CR, this is new, to provide $1 million for the legislative branch inaugural expenses that were contained in the vetoed legislative branch appropriations act.

Secondly, it provides $5.961 million for the District of Columbia inaugural expenses that are contained in the held-up District of Columbia appropriations act.

It provides approximately $200,000 for executive residence transition and moving expenses that were contained in the vetoed Treasury, Postal Service, General Government appropriations act.

That is what the CR does, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. OBEY. Mr. Speaker, continuing under my reservation of objection, let me simply say that my understanding is that this CR would continue to keep the government open through Tuesday, December 5.

It had certainly been my original hope that since the ergonomics issue, which has caused so much contention between the two parties, has now been issued, it had been hoped that since the objection to that standard is now moot, that we would, in fact, be able to move forward with the Labor, Health, Education conference, the remaining issues in that conference, and also reach a compromise with respect to the State, Justice, Commerce appropriations bill finishing the work of the Committee on Appropriations for this year.

It is apparent that the House leadership does not at this point want to release that bill. Under the circumstances, I would agree that there is no point in holding Members here with the unrealistic expectation that something is going to happen over the next week or so on the appropriations bills.

I think that under the circumstances, the date for the renewal of the resolution suggested by the gentleman makes sense.

Mr. YOUNG of Florida. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. OBEY. I yield to the gentleman from Florida.

Mr. YOUNG of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I would like to say I agree with what the gentleman from Wisconsin has said, and I hope that we can resolve these issues that have held us apart for these past few weeks.

Again, I think the gentleman would acknowledge what I am about to say that the issues that are holding us up from completing these bills are not appropriations issues, they are riders on appropriations bills.

I agree with the gentleman, I hope we can resolve them quickly and expeditiously and prepare for next year's appropriations process.

Mr. OBEY. Mr. Speaker, continuing my reservation of objection, I would hope that come December 5, we can do as I just described so that this lame duck session can, in fact, adjourn before it does too much damage to the Republicans.

Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my reservation of objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Florida?

There was no objection.
