

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES—Friday, December 8, 2000

The House met at 9 a.m.

The Chaplain, the Reverend Daniel P. Coughlin, offered the following prayer:

In a world filled with noise and confusion it is difficult to be attentive to Your Word, O Lord.

Grant us peace; peace of heart, health in our families and firm purpose to our Nation.

Steady our spirits with Your almighty hand, that we may know You are present and care for us even now.

Help us not to fear Your silence; instead, let us enter into its pure light.

Under Earth's blanket of winter quiet our depths that we may be a source of peace and reconciliation to others.

Keep us attuned to the slightest kindness, the child's prayer, the gentle whisper of understanding and all that signals Your kingdom is near.

Grant Sabbath to our souls that we may recognize Your glory when it appears now and forever. Amen.

PROVIDING FOR CONSIDERATION OF H.J. RES. 128, FURTHER CONTINUING APPROPRIATIONS, FISCAL YEAR 2001

Mr. LINDER. Mr. Speaker, by direction of the Committee on Rules, I call up House Resolution 669 and ask for its immediate consideration.

The Clerk read the resolution, as follows:

H. RES. 669

Resolved, That upon the adoption of this resolution it shall be in order without intervention of any point of order to consider in the House the joint resolution (H.J. Res. 128) making further continuing appropriations for the fiscal year 2001, and for other purposes. The joint resolution shall be considered as read for amendment. The previous question shall be considered as ordered on the joint resolution to final passage without intervening motion except: (1) one hour of debate equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Appropriations; and (2) one motion to recommit.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Georgia (Mr. LINDER) is recognized for 1 hour.

Mr. LINDER. Mr. Speaker, for purposes of debate only, I yield the customary 30 minutes to the gentleman from Massachusetts (Mr. MOAKLEY), pending which I yield myself such time as I may consume. During consideration of this resolution, all time yielded is for purposes of debate only.

Mr. Speaker, House Resolution 669 is a closed rule providing for consideration of House Joint Resolution 128, which makes further continuing appropriations for fiscal year 2001 through December 11.

House Resolution 669 provides for 1 hour of debate on the joint resolution, equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Appropriations. The rule waives all points of order against consideration of this joint resolution. Finally, the rule provides for one motion to recommit, as is the right of the minority.

Mr. Speaker, the current continuing resolution expires at the end of today, and further continuing resolutions are necessary to keep the government operating while Congress completes the consideration of the remaining appropriations bills. Because the President refuses to sign any of longer duration, the joint resolution covered by this rule simply extends the provisions of our current continuing resolution by 3 days.

Mr. Speaker, after months of hard work, the House has now just a few issues left to resolve. Some of these issues are issues of policy. Others are issues of money. Issues of policy do not belong in our appropriations discussion, they belong in our authorizing committees. The President has always been quick to chastise the Congress for such legislation, so I know this is not the proper place or time to be having these discussions.

In contrast, this is now the time to talk about money. We talk so much about money here that it is easy to forget that the money is real and that it really belongs to the taxpayer. It would surprise most Americans to learn that when we here on the floor talk about spending $1 billion in a year, what we are really talking about is spending well over $2.5 million per day, $2.5 million per day.

So I have come to the House floor with a great comfort for each of these continuing resolutions, knowing that every day is another small down payment to the American taxpayer. Each day is another step towards smaller and more efficient government.

Like my Republican colleagues, I am determined to pass fair and fiscally responsible appropriations bills. I will stay here as long as it takes to achieve this goal for the American people.

Mr. Speaker, I hope that the President will join us in our good-faith efforts to negotiate a fair, bipartisan solution to the disagreements still before us. I am hopeful that the fair, clean continuing resolution covered by this rule will give us the time we need to complete the appropriations process in a thoughtful and judicial manner.

This rule was unanimously approved by the Committee on Rules yesterday. I urge my colleagues to support it so we may proceed with general debate and consideration of this bill.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. MOAKLEY. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, even though the fiscal year started 69 days ago, my Republican colleagues still have not gotten
