Marshall Scholar—Chris Stephens.

Udall Scholar—Phoebe Katterhenry.

During last week's festivities, OSU inducted its prestigious scholarship winners into the university's new "Scholars Hall of Fame." As reported in the university's award-winning student newspaper, The Daily O'Collegian, "Flashbulbs and applause erupted Friday as an orange and black ribbon was clipped—unveiling Oklahoma State University's latest tribute to its academic heritage of excellence. OSU President James Halligan and Board of Regents Chairwoman Lou Watkins cut the ribbon and ushered a number of OSU's prestigious scholarship winners into the Scholars Hall of Fame in the Student Union."

Eighteen of OSU's national scholars returned to OSU for last week's festivities, traveling from as far away as England. Included were all ten Truman Scholars.

TRIBUTE TO BUD DEMEREST

HON. BENJAMIN A. GILMAN

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, December 15, 2000

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, it is with deep regret that I inform our colleagues of the recent passing of one of my truly outstanding constituents.

William McNeal Demerest, known to his many loved ones, friends, and admirers as "Bud", was a school teacher for 37 years. He was respected by his students because he not only taught them that community service is the greatest work of life, but he also led them by example. Bud served as Supervisor of the Town of Chester, N.Y., for twenty years, from 1950 until 1970. In those days, Orange County was governed by a Board of Supervisors and Bud was extremely active in that capacity. He also served as the Board of Supervisors minority leader for most of the years he served on that panel.

Bud will especially be remembered for his extraordinary efforts, after the close of World War II, in establishing the Orange County Community College (OCCC). The movement to establish two-year colleges had not yet caught fire nationwide at that point, but Bud was a prophet in foreseeing the benefit it would present not only for students but also for the economy of the whole region. When OCCC was established in 1950, Bud was appointed to their Board of Directors and served in that capacity for 23 years.

Bud Demerest was a veteran of the U.S. Army Air Corps in World War II. He was also a 50-year member of the Walton Engine and Hose Company, a life member of the Orange County Volunteer Firemen's Association, and the New York State Firemen's Association. He was also active in the American Legion, the Masons and Shriners, the Chester Historical Society, the Chester Little League, and many other community organizations.

Bud was predeceased by his lovely wife Ruth, but is survived by one son, one daughter, six grandchildren, one great-grandchild, and several nieces and nephews. William "Bud" Demerest served the public in many capacities, but each was outstanding as a good neighbor and friend. He will long be missed.

SPEECH OF

HON. BARBARA LEE

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, December 8, 2000

Ms. LEE. Mr. Speaker, I join my colleagues in sharing my deep sense of shock and loss for our beloved JULIAN DIXON.

JULIAN was a warrior and a statesman. I met JULIAN in 1975 when I worked as a member of Congressman Ron Dellums' staff, who I know joins us in remembering this great human being.

I will always remember how JULIAN treated me as a staff member—with respect and dignity. I know today, his staff would want me to say that JULIAN was a wonderful boss and demonstrated with them as he did with us his tough love. His fierce strength kept many of us centered and thinking clear about any issue.

As a member, JULIAN counseled me many times on the tips of the trade. Whenever an issue relating to my district came before appropriations, JULIAN would check up with me first to consider my views. He didn't have to do that. He never let me get blind-sided. Some of my most special moments with JULIAN were riding home with him. We live around the corner from each other.

During these rides we talked about so many things he cared about like his constituents; the people of California; and the people of his native home, Washington, DC. He always reminded me that I should not let the business of my life in Washington, DC get in the way of my personal friendships. All of us need to remember his words of wisdom and I thank him for his friendship. I want to thank Bettye and JULIAN's family and his home district for sharing this great leader with us and wish them God's blessings. May JULIAN's soul rest in peace.

SPEECH OF

HON. LUCILLE ROYBAL-ALLARD

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, December 8, 2000

Ms. ROYBAL-ALLARD. Mr. Speaker, it is with a heavy heart that I rise to express my deep sadness for the passing of my friend, mentor, and fellow Angeleno, JULIAN DIXON.

I had the privilege of knowing JULIAN DIXON for many years, including the years he served with my father, Congressman Edward R. Roybal, in the 1970s and 80s.

JULIAN served his Los Angeles-area community and the state of California as a member of the California State Assembly and in Congress with distinction.

JULIAN DIXON's achievements during his nearly three-decade tenure as a legislator are too numerous to recount. He was chairman of the House Ethics Committee, maintaining bipartisanship on a traditionally partisan committee. A fighter in the struggle for civil rights, he brought that commitment to his chairmanship of the District of Columbia Appropriations subcommittee where he was a strong advocate for the rights of DC residents. Recognizing his leadership capabilities, JULIAN was elected Chairman of the influential Congressional Black Caucus in the 1980s. More recently, he served as ranking Democrat on the prestigious and demanding Select Intelligence Committee.

When I was appointed to the Appropriations Committee two years ago, I was delighted at the opportunity to serve with JULIAN on the Commerce-Justice-State-Judiciary Subcommittee because I knew my staff and I would benefit greatly from his expertise and knowledge of the agencies, programs and issues that would come before the committee.

JULIAN was extremely skillful at getting straight to the heart of a policy question. While he never hesitated to express his displeasure with any administration official—be they Attorney General or Secretary of State—he always did so in a calm, dignified and respectful manner. He did not view his role on the subcommittee as solely partisan, but rather to make sure that the government was doing its job to serve the interests of his constituents and the American people as a whole.

One anecdote in particular illustrates the way JULIAN worked and the high degree of respect accorded him by Democrats and Republicans alike. Last year, which was my first year on the Appropriations committee, the Los Angeles police department was involved in a series of controversial shootings involving officers. Learning of the incidents, JULIAN immediately understood how critical it was to the future of Los Angeles and law enforcement to ensure that such shootings were thoroughly investigated. As a result, JULIAN worked with city officials and the district attorney's office to develop a program for "roll-out teams" to quickly respond to these shootings and ensure a thorough and impartial investigation.
