

TRIBUTE TO SALLY MORRISEY

HON. SCOTT McINNIS

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 28, 2000

Mr. McINNIS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to take a moment to recognize a living legend, Sally Morrisey. On March 24, 2000, Mrs. Morrisey reached a milestone in her life, when she celebrated her 80th birthday. On this day people from all over the nation came to celebrate this event with her.

Mrs. Morrisey is Durango Herald's longest running writer. She wrote a column dubbed "Sally Says" for 36 years. Locals swear by her columns, learning about travels, hospital stays, visiting relatives and the ongoing beat of new grandchildren. From an early age, she has demonstrated curiosity and an outgoing temperament, a combination that has served her well as a journalist. From 1982 to 1985, Sally joined the Peace Corps where she lived in Costa Rica and Guatemala.

Sally and her late husband, John Morrisey, Jr., raised a beautiful family of four children, 12 grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren. Some of her other achievements involve: the Peace Beyond War Award from the U.S. Government, the Eye Mission Award, the Animas Grange Citizen of the Year, AAUW's Outstanding Woman of the Year, the Barbershoppers' Harmony Award. In addition, Sally is active in the Reading Club, Tuesday Literary Club, La Plata County Historical Society, Durango Arts Center, Friends of the Arts, the Sewing Club, and an honorary member of Beta Sigma Phi.

On the wall of her apartment, Mrs. Morrisey has a quote by Helen Keller: "So much has been given to me, I have no time to ponder over that which has been denied." Mrs. Morrisey lives her life according to this quote. Mr. Speaker, I ask that we all wish a happy birthday to this outstanding American, wife, mother, journalist and friend. Hopefully we can all learn from the wonderful example that Mrs. Morrisey has set and follow the life of dignity and integrity that she has led.

OIL PRICE REDUCTION ACT OF 2000

SPEECH OF

HON. SHEILA JACKSON-LEE

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 22, 2000

The House in Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union had under consideration the bill (H.R. 3822) to reduce, suspend, or terminate any assistance under the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 and the Arms Export Control Act to each country determined by the President to be engaged in oil price fixing to the detriment of the United States economy, and for other purposes.

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Mr. Chairman, today I rise in opposition to the Oil Price Reduction Act. This bill does not give the President any more authority or require more action than he currently possesses. Furthermore, the Republican leadership refused to allow any waivers for Democratic amendments that would have significantly improved this measure.

This bill authorizes the President to reduce, suspend, or terminate assistance, such as military assistance or foreign aid, to countries that fix oil prices to the disadvantage of the American economy. Oil price fixing under this measure is defined as participation in any agreement, arrangement or understanding with other countries that are oil exporters that increase the price of oil or natural gas by means of limiting oil or gas production or establishing minimum prices for oil or gas. Furthermore, this bill would require the President to report to Congress as to whether major oil exporters are engaged in the defined oil price fixing to the detriment of the U.S. economy.

It requires the President to "undertake a concerted diplomatic effort to convince" countries accused of oil price fixing that their production levels are inadequate and have significant negative impacts on world economies. Recently, the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries [OPEC] acted in concert to decrease oil production and hold approximately 4 million barrels of oil a day. Since this decision to curtail production of 6 percent of the global supply of oil, prices have steadily increased from $11 a barrel in December 1998 to $30 a barrel just last month. The United States has not seen prices this high since the 1991 Persian Gulf war.

Our Nation's truckers, airlines, railroads, buses, and automobiles have been adversely impacted by these drastic oil production cuts. Our Nation needs relief; however, we must be careful not to rush legislation that may not fully address our energy needs. I support the Democratic leadership's effort to include the enforcement provisions of this bill that will enable the President to effectively address situations where oil price fixing threatens the U.S. economy.
