

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES—Wednesday, May 17, 2000

The House met at 9 a.m.

Commissioner John Busby, National Commander, Salvation Army, Alexandria, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, Creator, Preserver and Governor of all things, we humbly bow before You on behalf of those gathered here; individuals who find pleasure in serving the people of this great country.

With thankful hearts for Your goodness to each of them, we earnestly pray that You will take their minds and give them a new measure of wisdom, take their hearts and fill them with Your love for others, and take their wills and make them more obedient to Your will.

May Your servants here proceed step by step, hour by hour to meet the challenges You have given them so that in the end, the purpose that You have set out for this House of Representatives may be accomplished for the enrichment of people across this land and to Your honor and glory.

This we pray in Your holy name. Amen.

RECESS

The SPEAKER. Pursuant to the order of the House of Thursday, May 11, 2000, the House will stand in recess subject to the call of the Chair to receive the former Members of Congress.

RECEPTION OF FORMER MEMBERS OF CONGRESS

The SPEAKER of the House presided.

The SPEAKER. Good morning. On behalf of the House of Representatives, it gives me great pleasure to welcome to the Chamber today the former Members of Congress. This is your annual meeting. And, of course, many of you are personal friends from both sides of the aisle, and it is important that you are here certainly to renew those friendships.

As a report from the President will indicate, you honor this House and the Nation by your continuing efforts to export the concept of representative democracy to countries all over the world and to college campuses around this country. I endorse those efforts and hope you will pursue that and continue it.

I also endorse your wise choice of Chaplain Emeritus James D. Ford as the recipient of the Distinguished Service Award. Chaplain Ford will finally have his opportunity, which he has long sought, to speak from the floor of the House, a privileged reserved only to Members. I would remind him, however, that the proceedings are technically held within the House in recess, just to place things in perspective.

At this time, I would request that my friend, the gentleman from Illinois, Mr. Erlenborn, Vice President of the Former Members Association, take the Chair.

Mr. ERLBORN (presiding). The Clerk will call the roll of former Members of the House and Senate who are present today.

The Clerk called the roll of the former Members of Congress, and the following former Members answered to their names:

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, it is good to be with you again. We welcome you back to the Capitol. I want to echo the comments of the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. HASTERT), my dear friend and our Speaker, when I say to you this morning that it is good to see so many familiar faces and to comment how comfortable you look in your seats.

I am sure, as some of you know, I look forward some day of joining you all in your present capacity, but not too soon. The great American historian and diplomat, John Kenneth Galbraith, once said that nothing is so admirable in politics as a short memory. But
