for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. TRACY CAN. Mr. Speaker, the Department of Labor is bragging about all the new high-tech jobs they created. Let us check a few of them out. Dust collector, potato peeler, pretzel twisting, mattress testing, pillow stuffActivity, brassiere cup molder, cutter, and panty hose checkout.

Does that mean, Mr. Speaker, there is a panty hose checkout supervisor job that has been created? What is next? A pocket scientist? Beam me up.

Mr. Speaker, I urge all of my colleagues to vote against this misguided legislation.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. QUINN). Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, the Chair will now put the question on the Speaker’s approval of the Journal on which further proceedings were postponed earlier today, and then on the motion to suspend the rules on which further proceedings were postponed on Monday, June 12.

Votes will be taken in the following order:

The Journal's approval, by the yeas and nays; and

H. R. 4079, also by the yeas and nays.

The Chair will reduce to 5 minutes the time for any electronic vote after the first such vote in this series.

THE JOURNAL

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, the pending business is the question of agreeing to the Speaker’s approval of the Journal of the last day’s proceedings.

The question is on the Speaker’s approval of the Journal on which the yeas and nays are ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 239, nays 66, answered “present” 1, not voting 38, as follows:

Spending Cuts to Education in Labor-HHS-Education Appropriations Bill

Mr. UDALL of New Mexico asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.

Mr. UDALL of New Mexico. Mr. Speaker, as we move from budget and taxes to appropriations, we learn the true priorities of our colleagues on the other side of the aisle.

We have seen a trillion dollar tax cut, and we have seen this trillion dol-
