S. RES. 324

Whereas the Los Angeles Lakers have fielded such superstars as George Mikan, Witt Chamberlain, Jerry West, Elgin Baylor, Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Earvin "Magic" Johnson, and now, Shaquille O'Neal and Kobe Bryant;

Whereas Shaquille O'Neal led the league in scoring and field goal percentage on his way to winning the National Basketball Association's Most Valuable Player award, winning the IBM Award for greatest overall contribution to a team, and becoming just the sixth player in the history of the game to be an unanimous selection to the All-National Basketball Association First Team;

Whereas Shaquille O'Neal was named Most Valuable Player of the 2000 All Star game, scoring 22 points and collecting 9 rebounds;

Whereas Shaquille O'Neal dominated the 2000, averaging 38 points per game and winning the Most Valuable Player award in the National Basketball Association Finals;

Whereas Kobe Bryant overcame injuries to average more than 22 points a game in the regular season and became the National Basketball Association All-Defensive First Team;

Whereas Kobe Bryant's performance in the overtime of Game 4 led the Los Angeles Lakers to 1 of the most dramatic wins in playoff history;

Whereas Coach Phil Jackson, who has won 7 National Basketball Association rings and the highest playoff winning percentage in league history, has proven to be 1 of the most innovative and adaptable coaches in the National Basketball Association;

Whereas the Los Angeles Lakers epitomize Los Angeles pride with their determination, heart, stamina, and amazing comeback ability;

Whereas the support of all the Los Angeles fans and the people of California helped make winning the National Basketball Association Championship possible; and

Whereas the Los Angeles Lakers have started the 21st century meeting the high standards they established in the 20th century; Now, therefore, be it.

Resolved, That the United States Senate congratulates the Los Angeles Lakers on winning the 2000 National Basketball Association Championship Title.

SENATE RESOLUTION 325—WELCOMING KING MOHAMMED VI OF MOROCCO UPON HIS FIRST OFFICIAL VISIT TO THE UNITED STATES, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES

Mr. ABRAHAM submitted the following resolution; which was considered and agreed to:

S. RES. 325

Whereas Morocco was the first country to recognize the independence of the United States;

Whereas Morocco and the United States signed a Treaty of Friendship and Cooperation in 1777;

Whereas the Treaty of Friendship and Cooperation stands as the basis for the longest unbroken treaty relationship between the United States and a foreign country in the history of the Republic;

Whereas the Treaty of Friendship and Cooperation has established a close, friendly, and productive alliance between the United States and Morocco that has stood the test of history and exists today;
WHEREAS the close relationship between the United States and Morocco has long shared the objectives of securing a true and lasting peace in the Near East region and have worked together to establish and advance the Middle East peace process; and

WHEREAS the leadership of the late King Hassan II, Morocco played a critical role in host meetings, promoting dialogue, and ensuring modernization in the Middle East, leading to some of the peace process’s most important and lasting achievements;

WHEREAS, with the ascension of the King Hassan II’s successor, King Mohammed VI, Morocco is suitably positioned and ably guided by its current leadership to maintain its traditional role in the peace process;

WHEREAS Morocco and the United States have worked successfully to enhance economic, cultural, social, and political cooperation and the Maghreb region and its environs, including Morocco’s role as host to the inaugural Middle East and North Africa Summit held in Casablanca in 1994, and Morocco’s continuing prominence in sustaining that dialogue and promoting economic integration with Tunisia and Algeria;

WHEREAS King Mohammed VI has assumed and expanded the legacy of his father, the late Hassan II, in strengthening the rule of law, promoting the concepts of democracy, human rights and individual liberties, and implementing far-reaching economic and social reforms to benefit all of the people of Morocco;

WHEREAS the preservation of the rights and freedoms of the Moroccan people and the expansion of Morocco represent a model for progress and bolster the foreign policy objectives of the United States in the region and elsewhere;

WHEREAS leading American corporations such as the CMS Energy Corporation, the Boeing Company, the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company, the Gillette Company, and others are responsible for substantial and increasingly higher levels of trade, investment, and commerce between the United States and Morocco, and is helping to strengthen the fabric of the bilateral relationship and to sustain it throughout the 21st century and beyond;

WHEREAS the people of the United States and Morocco have long enjoyed fruitful exchanges in fields such as culture, education, politics, and sports, and Americans of Moroccan origin are making substantial contributions to these and other disciplines in the United States and Morocco;

WHEREAS Morocco and the United States are preparing for the first official visit to the United States by King Mohammed VI to highlight these and other achievements, to celebrate the long history of warm and friendly ties between the two countries, to continue discussions on how to advance and accelerate economic and political cooperation between the United States and Morocco, and to inaugurate a new chapter in the longest unbroken treaty relationship in the history of the United States. Now, therefore,

Resolved,

SECTION 1. SENSE OF THE SENATE ON THE VISIT OF KING MOHAMMED VI OF MOROCCO TO THE UNITED STATES.

The Senate hereby—

(1) welcomes His Majesty King Mohammed VI of Morocco upon his first official visit to the United States;

(2) reaffirms the longstanding, warm, and productive ties between the United States and the Kingdom of Morocco, as established by the Treaty of Friendship and Cooperation of 1787;

(3) pledges its commitment to expand ties between the United States and Morocco, to the mutual benefit of both countries; and

(4) expresses its appreciation to the leadership and people of Morocco for their role in the promotion and preservation of expanding growth and development in the region, promoting bilateral trade and investment between the United States and Morocco, and advancing democracy, human rights, and justice.

SEC. 2. TRANSMITTAL OF RESOLUTION.

The Secretary of the Senate shall transmit a copy of this resolution to the President with the recommendation in the field of international relations, especially Cuban affairs and United States-Cuban relations, and shall include representatives from a cross-section of United States interests, including human rights, religion, public health, military, business, agriculture, and the Cuban-American community.

(1) The President shall designate a Chair from among the members of the Commission.

(2) The Commission shall meet at the call of the Chair.

(3) A majority of the members of the Commission shall constitute a quorum.

(4) Any action of the Commission shall not affect its powers, but shall be filled in the manner in which the original appointment was made.

(5) DUTIES AND POWERS OF THE COMMISSION.—

(a) ESTABLISHMENT.—There is established the National Bipartisan Commission on Cuba (in this section referred to as the “Commission”).

(b) PURPOSES.—The purposes of this section are to—

(i) address the serious long-term problems in the relations between the United States and Cuba; and

(ii) help build the necessary national consensus on a comprehensive United States policy with respect to Cuba.

(c) ESTABLISHMENT.—

(1) I N GENERAL.—Not later than 225 days after the date of enactment of this section, the President shall establish the Commission in accordance with the provisions of this section, and such commission shall be composed of not more than 12 members, who shall be appointed as follows:

(A) The President shall appoint on the recommendation of the majority leader of the Senate, and the minority leader of the Senate, of the United States Senate, as chairman of the Commission.
