The resolution, with its preamble, reads as follows:

WHEREAS Morocco was the first country to recognize the independence of the United States;
WHEREAS Morocco and the United States signed a Treaty of Friendship and Cooperation in 1787;
WHEREAS the Treaty of Friendship and Cooperation stands as the basis for the longest unbroken treaty relationship in the history of the Republic;
WHEREAS the Treaty of Friendship and Cooperation has established a close, friendly, and productive alliance between the United States and Morocco that has stood the test of history and exists today;
WHEREAS the close relationship between the United States and Morocco has helped the United States advance important national interests;
WHEREAS the United States and Morocco have long shared the objectives of securing a true and lasting peace in the Near East region and together to establish and advance the Middle East peace process;
WHEREAS, under the leadership of the late King Hassan II, Morocco played a critical role in hosting meetings, promoting dialogue, and encouraging moderation in the Middle East, leading to some of the peace process’s most important and lasting achievements;
WHEREAS, with the ascension of the King Hassan II’s successor, King Mohammed VI, Morocco is suitably positioned and ably guided in its leadership capacity to maintain its traditional role in the peace process;
WHEREAS Morocco and the United States have worked successfully to enhance economic stability, growth, and progress in the Maghreb region and its environs, including Morocco’s role as host to the inaugural Middle East and North Africa Summit held in Casablanca in 1994, and Morocco’s continuing prominence in sustaining that dialogue and promoting economic integration with Tunisia and Algeria;
WHEREAS King Mohammed VI has assumed and expanded the legacy of his father, the late Hassan II, in strengthening the rule of law, promoting the concepts of democracy, human rights, and individual liberties, and in implementing far-reaching economic and social reforms to benefit all of the people of Morocco;
WHEREAS the preservation of the rights and freedoms of the Moroccan people and the expansion of reforms in Morocco represent a model for progress and bolster the foreign policy objectives of the United States in the region and elsewhere;
WHEREAS leading American corporations such as The CMS Energy Corporation, the Boeing Company, the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company, the Gillette Company, and others are responsible for substantial and increasingly higher levels of trade, investment, and commerce between the United States and Morocco, involving increasingly diverse sectors of the Moroccan and American economies;
WHEREAS the expansion of economic activity is emerging as a new and increasingly important component of the historical friendship between the United States and Morocco, and is helping to strengthen the fabric of the bilateral relationship and to sustain it throughout the 21st century and beyond;
WHEREAS the people of the United States and Morocco have long enjoyed fruitful exchanges in fields such as culture, education, politics, science, business, and industry, and Americans of Moroccan origin are making substantial contributions to these and other disciplines in the United States; and
WHEREAS Morocco and the United States are preparing for the first official visit to the United States by King Mohammed VI to highlight these and other achievements, to celebrate the long history of warm and friendly ties between the two countries, to continue discussions on how to advance and accelerate those objectives common to the United States and Morocco, and to inaugurate a new chapter in the longest unbroken treaty relationship in the history of the United States: Now, therefore, be it

SECTION 1. SENSE OF THE SENATE ON THE VISIT OF KING MOHAMMED VI OF MOROCCO TO THE UNITED STATES.
The Senate hereby—
(1) welcomes His Majesty King Mohammed VI of Morocco upon his first official visit to the United States;
(2) reaffirms the longstanding, warm, and productive ties between the United States and Morocco, as established by the Treaty of Friendship and Cooperation of 1787;
(3) pledges its commitment to expand ties between the United States and Morocco, to the mutual benefit of both countries; and
(4) expresses its appreciation to the leadership and people of Morocco for their role in preserving international peace and stability, expanding growth and development in the region, promoting bilateral trade and investment between the United States and Morocco, and advancing democracy, human rights, and justice.

Orders for Wednesday, June 21, 2000

Mr. MCCONNELL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it stand in adjournment until 9:30 a.m. on Wednesday, June 21. I further ask unanimous consent that when the Senate begins its work tomorrow, the morning hour be deemed expired, the time for the two leaders be reserved for their use later in the day, and the Senate then begin a period for morning business, with Senators permitted to speak for up to 5 minutes each.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senate hereby—

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. SESSIONS. If the Senator from West Virginia would give me 1 to 2 minutes before his remarks, I would be finished and glad to yield the floor to him.

Mr. BYRD. Mr. President, I learned a long time ago that a good Boy Scout should do a good deed every day. I want to do my good deed at this moment. I am very happy for the Senator to speak as long as he wishes, and I yield the floor to him.

Mr. SESSIONS. By unanimous consent, Mr. President.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Alabama.

Mr. SESSIONS. I thank the Senator from West Virginia for his courtesy.

COMMENDING SENATOR BROWNBACK FOR HIS STATEMENT ON INDIA

Mr. SESSIONS. Mr. President, a few moments ago the Senator who is presiding over the Senate spoke on the floor, expressing some views about the nation of India. I believe the Senator raised a very important matter that is too little discussed in our Government, in our news media, and in this country. It seems to me every time I have heard the Senator speak on it, he makes perfectly good sense.

The Senator is on the right track with a very important issue for our country. I simply want to say to the Senator, thank you for raising it. I believe it is a matter we need to discuss more.
